TRAGIC DEATH OF W. A. NAUGLE IS DEEPLY REGRETTED

Friends in the Prosper and Frisco communities were made sad when word came Sunday of the tragic death of William Alvin Naugle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Naugle of Fort Worth, for many years residents of the Rock Hill community, where the deceased was born, moving to Denton with his parents in childhood.

His career in school is probably little known to the friends of his early years, except the fact that he was the honored recipient of a Rhodes Scholarship and was a student at Oxford university. One of his brothers, Elbert, also won this distinction and honor. At the time of his death his home was in New York City where he was a jobber in hospital supplies. Just recently he had made a week's visit with his parents in Fort Worth and was on a tour of various cities of the south in the interest of his business.

At New Orleans he picked up two of his salesmen who were with him when the fatal accident occurred a few miles from Tampa, Fla. His companions suffered a few broken bones and are recovering in a Tampa hospital.

The body was shipped to Fort Worth where funeral services were held Tuesday morning and brought to Bethel cemetery for burial Tuesday afternoon. Besides the parents, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. E. A. Wheeler, Capulin, New Mexico; two brothers, Rev. Eugene Naugle, Anson, Texas, and Elbert Naugle, New York City.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Cozad returned Tuesday from Shreveport, La., where, for the past two weeks, Dr. Cozad has conducted a revival meeting at the Queensboro Baptist church there for the pastor, Dr. C. W. Culp, having some splendid results from the meeting. Otis Thompson led the singing. It will be remembered that in the early summer Dr. Culp and Mr. Thompson conducted a revival for Dr. Cozad in this city.

Transportation will be provided members of the McKinney Junior Chamber of Commerce band to Gainesville Friday night, October 19, for the football game between the McKinney High Lions and the Gainesville High Leopards, who meet in the first conference game for both teams. Last week, transportation for the band was provided to Bonham when local citizens took the band members to the game in private cars.

The McKinney High Lions third string or "Hammerheads" won a 13-0 decision over the well-coached L. A. Scott Junior High Cubs in a hard-fought game at Newsome Athletic field Monday afternoon. The Hammerheads coached by Prof. W. R. Hollis showed a wealth of speed and power to run over the smaller Cubs who stuck to a passing attack and made it work fairly well. The Cubs are coached by W. E. Bonham Jr. and Jack Allen, former McKinney High stars.

DENISON LADY BURIED WEDNESDAY AT MELISSA

Interment of Mrs. Sallie E. Rutledge took place Wednesday at Melissa, after funeral services had been held at 9:30 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning at the First Christian church in Denison with Rev. Gerald L. Miller officiating.

The deceased had been a resident of Denison many years, being the widow of the late Dr. W. C. Rutledge, a prominent physician of that city who died a few years ago.

Mrs. Rutledge died at 10:00 o'clock Monday night, October 15, at her late home, 1103 South Armstrong avenue, Denison. Death followed a week's illness.

She and her late husband were former residents of Melissa this county.

Mrs. Rutledge was born in Glasgow, Ky., Aug. 30, 1863, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers, and received her schooling at Liberty college, Glasgow. In October of 1885 she was married to Dr. W. C. Rutledge at Glasgow. She came to Denison from Melissa and was a member of the First Christian church.

Surviving are four sons, R. M. and W. C. Rutledge, Denison, and B. T. and Dr. J. A. Rutledge, Ada, Okla.; two brothers, Will Myers, Columbia, Ky., and Hise Myers, Artesia, N. M.; two sisters, Mrs. Janie Pritchard, Sonora, Ky., and Mrs. F. N. Bradfard, Glasgow, and nine grandchildren.

CIRCUS TO ERECT TENTS FRIDAY ON PICNIC GROUNDS

The first big show of the 1934 season will visit McKinney, Friday, October 19, coming here from Denton with its magic caravan of floats, chariots, calliopes, vans, carts, rigs, dens, cages, electrical lighting plants, red wagons and all the necessary paraphenalia required for a huge three ring white top entertainment, making a one day stay on the Old Settlers' Picnic grounds.

As soon as the "lot" is laid out by the veteran William J. Erickson, who has been superintending circuses on and off show grounds since the days of Adam Forepaugh, the magic city of tents will rise as if propelled by some unseen power—yet it is all a part of the workaday world of the big show—here today and away tomorrow. To another town, day after day, to please and entertain hordes of children and adult circus fans—that is the mission of the big show.

The John Robson's famous dog and pony show, now in its 68th year, comes here with an all new program designed almost wholly for the ladies and children. It is a foregone conclusion that the circus is primarily a children's institution, therefore, the management of the Robson show, not giving a hoot for grownups, have made up the 1934 edition of this famous show specially for the youngsters, knowing right well that 8 out of 10 patrons to the big show will bring children.

We are glad to see our fine old friend, J. T. Bogard, back in McKinney again. Lost his life mate some four years ago. Has been away three or four years, but is back now, we ho pe, permanently. Has been living with his sons, Bill and Guy, at Amarillo. Likes out there. Mighty fine people. But none better than old McKinney a nd Collin county, where he has resided the past thirty-five years. Mr. Bogard has a daughter, Mrs. Ella Pyron, living in Dallas. His son, Earl Bogard, lives here, as well as a daughter, Mrs. Minnie Carr. Mr. Bogard spent most of the time with his daughter here, although he visits around among his children. His son, Alec, lives in Fayetteville, Ark. Mr. Bogard is a quiet, pleasant and congenial old gentleman, whose friends are legion here, where he lived for 35 years and where he has reared a good family.

Mrs. Felix Rogers, of the bookkeeping department of the big J. P. Dowell hardware establishment, has returned from a week-end visit with relatives and friends, at Ada, Oklahoma. She was accompanied by her pretty little five-year-old daughter, Joy, and also by her mother, Mrs. L. Weatherly, who lives on North Coleman street. Mrs. Rogers states that when they reached Denison, Saturday afternoon, en route in their auto to Ada, they encountered a heavy rain and that it rained nearly all day Sunday, at Ada.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cunningham attended the football game in Bonham when McKinney and Bonham High school teams played, the score being [illegible].

Rose Queen

Here is Miss Louise Boren, Queen of the East Texas Rose Festival held at Tyler. Queen Louise rode on a silver throne in a parade which rivaled major flower festivals of America, according to distinguished florists who attended the celebration. The rose industry is gaining much headway in East Texas, where soil and climate are especially suited to rose culture. (Texas News Photos.)

OFFICERS TO BE NAMED BY CLUB WOMEN

The Collin County Home Demonstration Council held its regular monthly session at the local Chamber of Commerce rooms Saturday, October 13, with Mrs. J. T. Isom, chairman and Miss Gertrude Arnold, secretary, in charge of the meeting.

A letter from Mrs. Josie Englin, president of the Texas State Home Demonstration association, was read by Mrs. Isom. Mrs. Englin advised all women to use their influence to vote against the proposed amendment for limiting state tax income in Texas on a population basis. The motion was made and carried that each club woman would tell at least 5 non-club women.

Mrs. C. L. Weeks and Mrs. Bart Bryant were selected as delegates to attend a district meeting of the agricultural workers association at Denton on October 19.

Each club was asked to send in to the home demonstration agent during the next 2 weeks the name of one woman who would be able to attend a state meeting of agricultural workers in Dallas December 3 to 6.

Under unfinished business, the year book committee read the 1935 program which was approved.

Mrs. Carl Reese of the county relief office explained the rehabilitation program for the purpose of their carrying the information back to their communities.

Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration club agent, reminded the women that next month is election month when the new county council officers for 1935 will be elected. She also reminded the women that their annual reports are due at that time.

Rev. John McWilliams, son of Mrs. Belle McWilliams of this city, and a brother of Mrs. J. A. McKey, the later of Perkins Bros. big dry goods store, is still a patient in the hospital at San Antonio. However he is able now to walk about some by the aid of crutches. Rev. Mr. McWilliams, who is a Presbyterian minister, suffered a broken leg in a fall from a horse, while on drill, with a regiment in the early part of the year. He has long been a chaplain in the United States Army. Rev. Mr. McWilliams was reared in McKinney where he has numerous relatives and boyhood friends who are glad to hear of his steady improvement, even if it is a slow procedure.

Buddy Garrett, wife and pretty little four-year-old daughter, Patsy Ruth, who have been living in New Orleans for the past year or two, recently moved back to Dallas where he resumed his old position with the same auto accessory company as Dallas city salesman. M'KINNEY REALTY CO. PROVES VALUE OF ADVERTISING

Does advertising pay? It does when properly used and backed up by the facts. Monday evening, the McKinney Realty company advertised 40 acres, three miles from town, with fairly good house, for the low price of $15 per acre or $600 for the forty acres. By 6:00 o'clock, six telephone calls had been received by Frank Blackwell, manager of the McKinney Realty company, and by night, the place was sold to C. C. Harris, well-known, progressive business man and proprietor of Harris' Funeral home.

A look meant a buy and Mr. Harris bought it. Of course, it was an exceptional bargain, the only kind that the McKinney Realty company handles. More than twenty-five calls from persons interested in this one tract of land, at price quoted, were received. Of course, the McKinney Realty company have other exceptional bargains and if you really want to make up your losses for the past few years, call in and talk it over with them, either city property or lands.

Go back to the farm and go to work. Tickle mother earth and mother earth will be good to you.

The Pure Food show is one of the outstanding community events in the city. It is wholesome, instructive and interesting. Annually, it has exhibits of delectable foods from McKinney merchants, as well as business and industrial concerns and from other concerns all over the state and southwest.

In addition, the Texas Power & Light company, of which Howard S. Ware is the efficient and well-liked district manager, will sponsor a cooking school. The show will be held in the city coliseum, which will be gaily decorated for the occasion.

VETERAN MASON IS BURIED AT FARMERSVILLE

William F. Hicks, who was born near Denton, in 1861, died at the Masonic home, in Arlington, Monday, October 8. The remains were taken to his old home at Farmersville for interment in the Odd Fellows cemetery under auspices of the Masonic Lodge. He attended school in Farmersville and later at Savoy college in Grayson county. He married Miss Cinnie Rawson, a Farmersville girl, who died a few years ago. The deceased was formerly in the meat market business with the late Sam Harris in Farmersville and later was in the same line of business in Wolfe City for several years.

B. S. House And Wife Move To Gladewater

Our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. House, have moved to Gladewater, Texas. This editor has known Mr. and Mrs. House for a third of a century. In fact, when he first started the Wylie Rustler, forty years ago, Mr. House was among our first and valued readers. From time to time, he has been a reader of the Weekly Democrat-Gazette and writes us from his new home to send it to him. It is a pleasure to do so. Tom W. Perkins and Frank Blackwell of the McKinney Realty company recently sold Mr. House's excellent fifty-acre farm, two and a half miles south of McKinney, on Highway No. 75, to Prof. Lyman D. Robinson, who bought it as an investment and, in our opinion, made no mistake, being one of the best farms in the county and the location par excellent.

While we regretted to see Mr. and Mrs. House move away from our county, we wish these fine people continued health, happiness and prosperity. We would need no courthouse in this country, nor courts, if all the people dealt fair and square like B. S. House.

Prof. Jack R. Ryan and wife drove up to Sherman Tuesday night to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Bill Welch, who is a patient in a hospital there. Mrs. Welch was formerly Miss Louise Sears of Whitewright, who has often visited her McKinney sister and husband and who has made many friends here who are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Cowan, the pastor, officiated with the ring ceremony. The couple were attended by the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Franklin. Mrs. Reiber wore a fall suit of brown, with matching accessories.

The bride is one of our city's most popular young ladies, being active in the younger social set. She is quite talented as an artist and is active in religious and social circles of the city. She graduated from Boyd High school, later attending C. I. A. at Denton and also studied commercial art in Dallas. MRS. STOLL IS RELEASED BY KIDNAPERS

Information that Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll in the hands of a lunatic kidnaper six days, had been returned safely to her family home in Louisville, Ky., Tuesday night, brought 500 joyous Kentuckians to the house. The young society woman, who was abducted last Wednesday afternoon from her home, was brutally treated at times, but was described as in fairly good condition. She was put to bed at once under a physician's care.

Thomas H. Robinson Jr., 27, former inmate of insane asylums in Tennessee, was named by the Department of Justice as the kidnaper. He had been sought since the kidnaping and a formal order was sent out Tuesday night for his arrest. Orders for other arrests went out at Nashville, home of Robinson and a focal point of the investigation. His wife, trailed from Nashville, where she received the $50,000, to Indianapolis, was arrested and held for possible accessory charges. Harold Nathan said that only $500 of the ransom money was recovered when Mrs. Robinson was taken in custody.

The Rev. E. Arnold Clegg, pastor of Capital Methodist Episcopal church, Indianapolis, and his wife, were in the automobile in which justice agents found the wealthy kidnap victim and the alleged kidnaper's wife. The Cleggs were released and the Department of Justice in Washington announced they were not involved.

The case began to break with breath-taking swiftness late Monday when Mrs. Robertson was given the ransom money in Nashville by her father-in-law, Thomas H. Robinson, who had been serving as intermediary.

Rev. Roy Patton, pastor of the Methodist church, at Anna, had some circulars printed by the Daily Courier-Gazette and the Weekly Democrat-Gazette job printing office announcing the appointment of Rev. P. YOUNGEST SISTER A. B. FULTS DIES AT VAN ALSTYNE

A. B. Fults, veteran McKinney mail carrier, attended the funeral services in Van Alstyne Saturday, October 13, of his sister, Mrs. Ludie Jackson, aged 46 years and 8 months, wife of Joe Jackson, a garageman of that city, who passed away Friday.

The deceased, who is survived by only one other brother, C. D. Fults of Ryan, Oklahoma, was reared from infancy by Andy M. Jackson and family on a North Collin farm, her husband being a nephew of her foster parents, who took her after her mother died in 1888. She was at the time only four days old.

She had been ill for several months, but became much worse on Friday, October 12, passing away at 7:00 p. m. that day. Burial was made in the Van Alstyne cemetery. Besides her husband, she is survived by one daughter, Miss Pauline, and one married son, Delmar Jackson.

Her father, S. W. Fults, was married twice. Of the first marriage only two brothers, A. B. Fults of McKinney, and C. D. Fults of Ryan, Oklahoma, survive.

Five half-brothers and four half-sisters also survive. Two half-sisters, one half-brother and her brother, Mr. Fults, of this city, were present at the funeral services.

The deceased was reared by a Cumberland Presbyterian family, was converted in childhood and lived a Christian life. She had many friends in this county around Weston.

W. A. Day, an excellent farmer, getting his mail on Route 1, Allen, and living on the farm of G. S. Baccus of this city, in the Rowlett Creek church community, twelve miles southwest of McKinney, was in town Monday. He finished sowing wheat last week and says he expects that it will sprout and come up right away, as his section of the county had more rain Saturday evening and Saturday night than we evidently had here in McKinney. Mr. Day does not sow oats in the fall but prefers to sow that crop the first week in January, if possible. He has lived ten or twelve years on the Baccus farm. He has gathered twelve bales of cotton from his forty-five acre crop and has made enough corn and oats to run him until he makes the next crop.

The County Commissioners' Court of Grayson county met Monday to make final arrangements for giving a deed to Loy Park, between Sherman and Denison to the State Park department. 25 YEARS AGO IN M'KINNEY

FROM THE FILES OF THE DAILY COURIER-GAZETTE

(October 15, 1909.)

Mrs. A. F. Werner of Sedalia, Missouri, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mayes, in McKinney.

Shelby Adams was here today from near Foncine. While Shelby is a farmer, yet he makes most of his trips to McKinney by auto.

Buck Shrader, progressive Sherman merchant, visited his brother, J. K. P. Shrader, of the Duncan-McDowell Dry Goods Co. salesmen force.

Tom Airhart was in McKinney today after lumber at the J. M. Wilcox & Son Lumber yard with which to build a new school house at New Life, about twelve miles northeast of town.

The McKinney Realty Co. sold W. H. Sandidge's twelve-acre farm located one mile north of McKinney on the interurban for $150.00 per acre to W. F. Russell of Wylie, who is a brother of J. W. Russell, a clerk in Matthews' Bros. big dry goods store.

YOUR HOME TOWN

SEEN HERE AND THERE

Congratulations to those public-spirited business men, who are providing conveyance to Gainesville for members of the McKinney Junior Chamber of Commerce band, which will play for the grid game there Friday night . . . Choice McClure and H. W. Henley are in charge of this feature; if you have ways for one or more band members, see them right away . . . With the mercury daily climbing around the 80-degree mark, one wonders if this is really October . . . One also wonders at the continued heated spell in the face of those flocks of geese that have been heading southward over McKinney during the past several days . . . E. T. Simpson coming by to subscribe for the Weekly Democrat-Gazette, to be sent to his son, Dale Simpson, a student in Oklahoma university at Norman . . . J. E. Gibson has about as many friends as any one we know; he's well-liked by every acquaintance . . . Congratulations to Mrs. J. W. Spencer, a mighty good friend of ours, who observed her 91st birthday Monday, October 15 . . . We notice quite a bit of improving going forward over the city, in the way of putting on new roofs, remodeling porches, repapering and repainting homes; keep up the good work in our home town . . . Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Burkes, another popular and well-liked young McKinney couple; they reside in their cozy home on North Coleman street . . . Late fall flowers, blooming luxuriantly over the city, as in the spring, continue to elicit favorable comment from all flower lovers . . . And, another thing, the grassy lawns are growing by leaps and bounds, causing owners to get out their lawn mowers from storing places and get them into action.

FARMERS FAVOR AAA

Recently, we commented on the decisive manner in which Collin county farmers voted to continue the corn-hog reduction program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in 1935. In fact the vote was almost unanimous in this county, the farmers voting 237 to 15 out of 252 votes. Roughly, that is a 15-to-1 vote. But, Texas farmers as a whole voted more than 9-to-1 in favor of an adjustment program of the same nature when the referendum was taken. Texas farmers also favored a program of one contract a farm dealing with grains and livestock in 1936 by more than a 3-to-1 count. Farmers in approximately 180 counties participated in the voting, casting a total of 17,048 ballots in favor of the corn-hog program to 1,838 against. They voted 13,778 to 4,350 for the new grain and livestock program. Thus, it can be seen that Collin county and Texas farmers as a whole greatly favor the work of the A. A. A. in crop curtailment and regulation.

TEXAS FARM CENSUS

A farm census of the State of Texas will be taken during the winter months or after the November election, according to a bill recently passed by Congress. The census bureau expects to establish 13 districts in Texas, each headed by one supervisor, and to employ 1,460 enumerators. Headquarters stations for these thirteen districts will be Lubbock, Wichita Falls, Dallas, Texarkana, El Paso, Brownwood, Waco, Houston, Jasper, San Antonio, Brenham and Brownsville. This census will show accurately the value, production, wealth and handling of Texas farms and crops. It will give a report on the rural population as compared with the 1930 census. It is our opinion, that such census work is highly valuable, especially among the farming sections, where it is necessary for the government to keep informed minutely on details.

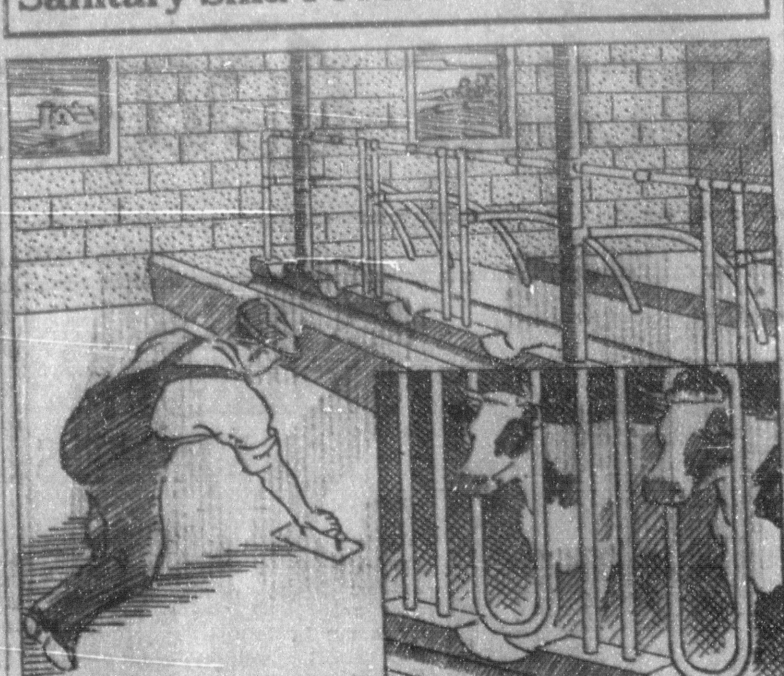
Sanitary Skid-Proof Floors for Barns



Finishing the aisle floor in a concrete cattle barn. Floors properly designed and built like this one assure clean, comfortable, healthy stock.

By W. G. KAISER
Agricultural Engineer

Modern health ordinances as a rule demand rigid standards of purity for milk consumed in the districts they control. Not only is clean handling compulsory, but sources of milk supply are often investigated to see if production is carried on under sanitary conditions.

Sanitary milk production is, therefore, a problem of the dairy farm. A great aid to its solution is the use of concrete. No modern dairy barn is complete without a concrete floor, for such a base is permanent, non-absorbent, sanitary, and in keeping with all health regulations.

The floor should be planned with reference to the design of the barn. If the land is well drained, concrete floors may be placed directly on the soil. Otherwise it is advisable to level off the ground and place a 6-inch fill of cinders or gravel. In all cases, the ground or fill must be thoroughly tamped before placing concrete.

Forms are made of 1-inch lumber, well braced. Follow manufacturer's directions about placing the stanchions. Concrete for the floor is made with 5 gallons of water per sack of cement when sand and gravel are wet; 6 gallons of water per sack when sand and other ingredients are thoroughly dry. As a trial batch, mix 1 sack of cement, 2 cubic feet of sand and 3 cubic feet of pebbles and the correct amount of water. The mix should be plastic and workable, not too sloppy nor too stiff. If too stiff, cut down on sand and pebbles; if too sloppy, add sand and pebbles. Never change the proportions of cement and water.

Build the manger curb first; then the litter alley and the manger. Stanchion manufacturers generally furnish templates to secure the proper manger curve.

Next build stall platforms. These will vary according to the kind of stock. The gutter between the litter alley and the stall platform is placed last.

Tamp concrete thoroughly. Use a wood float to make a gritty non-skid surface for the floor and stall. The manger surface should be finished with a steel trowel to make it smooth. The concrete should be damp cured for a week before using. It can be covered with moist sand or burlap while curing.

FIRST BAPTIST MEMBERS HEAR REV. AIRHART

Rev. G. B. Airhart occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, bringing two splendid messages to large congregations, in the absence of the pastor, Dr. J. H. Cozad, who with his wife has been in Shreveport, La., the past two weeks, conducting a revival meeting at the Queensboro Baptist church for Dr. C. W. Culp.

Rev. Mr. Airhart's subject Sunday morning was "Children of God," while Sunday night he spoke on "Christ Crucified." The choir rendered good music, under the direction of Mrs. Paul Wilson, church organist. Rev. Airhart is one of the most able Baptist ministers in this county, often being called on to supply at pulpits over the county, and to lead in revival meetings. He is a consecrated, able preacher, whose messages Sunday were inspirational and beneficial.

The First Baptist church is one of the largest congregations in the county, with an active membership. The large audience present on Sunday enjoyed the sermons of the visiting minister Sunday morning and evening.

WANT CENTENNIAL APPROPRIATION MADE THIS SESSION

After two test votes showed a favorable result Monday, the Senate in Austin reversed itself, 10 to 13, and killed a resolution calling for a sine die adjournment Oct. 25. The first two ballots were 12 to 11 in its favor. Had the resolution been adopted the House would have had to take similar action to make it effective.

An extended and at times heated debate was held on the resolution, during which the Centennial proposition freely was discussed for and against, writes William M. Thornton in the Dallas News. When it was over the Centennial appropriation bill was introduced by George Purl of Dallas and set for hearing in committee of the whole Tuesday afternoon. Walter C. Woodward of Coleman was named chairman by Lieut. Gov. Edgar E. Witt.

Objects to Adjournment.

Under the constitution all revenue-raising measures must originate in the House. This explains why no supporting tax bill accompanied the measure in the Senate. It later will be presented in the House and will show the plan to obtain the funds necessary to meet the Centennial financial requirements. The House adjourned Monday before the bill was offered.

Ben Oneal of Wichita Falls and W. R. Posage of Waco signed the resolution calling for final adjournment Oct. 25.

Holbrook objected, saying that sufficient time would not be available to consider the measures.

Pleads for Centennial.

Holbrook made a strong plea for the Centennial, declaring that to postpone an appropriation to the regular session is to kill the celebration. He called on all that favored a Centennial to vote against the resolution, declaring its purpose was to kill the exposition.

"Dallas and all Texas are waiting for this Legislature to make provision for the 1936 celebration," said Holbrook, "and the Centennial commission members are here to present the plans. Before they can do it you want to adjourn. That is all bunk and foolishness." He said he was not one of the nineteen that asked for the session but that it was called and he proposed to do his duty.

Misses Doris Turrentine and Mary Leona Watson spent the week-end in Tyler where they attended the rose festival. Mis Turrentine is one of the teachers in the Fanny Finch (South) ward school, this city, while Miss Watson teaches at Prosper.

DUKE & AYRES WILL CELEBRATE 40TH ANNIVERSARY

On Thursday, October 18, 1934, Duke & Ayres will be forty years old, the first store being opened at Bowie, Texas, on Thursday, October 18, 1894, by H. Z. Duke. This first store was known as The Nickel Store. It then became Duke & Teal, but was later changed to Duke, Teal & Ayres, and finally it became Duke & Ayres, Inc., and remains so today.

In January, 1907, this business was incorporated with H. Z. Duke as president. After Mr. Duke's death in 1918, Newton Ayres became president. In 1925 Ezra S. Fudge succeeded Mr. Ayres upon his retirement.

Duke & Ayres has a most remarkable history. It has shown a profit each year since the beginning. The only man who was Chief while in its employ was Mr. Duke, the founder. There has only been one fire of consequence and it did not seriously affect the business.

More than ten per cent of the net profits of the business has been given to church and charity, and during the past fourteen years more than three million dollars has been paid in salaries, rentals and taxes.

All officers and directors are actively engaged in conducting this business. They are:

Ezra S. Fudge, president.

Chesley W. Brown, 1st vice-president-treasurer.

Robert R. Rickard, 2nd vice-president.

Walter C. Steinman, secretary and assistant treasurer.

O. W. Oney, district supervisor.

Carlton Harrison, district supervisor.

Duke & Ayres is a Texas corporation and all the capital of this company is owned by its officers and directors and a number of managers. There is no outside capital invested.

On our fortieth anniversary Duke & Ayres takes this means of expressing our appreciation and gratitude to our friends and patrons who have made our business such a phenomenal success.

Duke & Ayres is a growing concern in a progressive state of enterprising people and our policy of quality, courtesy and service is the same today as 40 years ago and 40 years hence.

Duke & Ayres stores are operated in the following cities:

General offices and warehouse, Dallas, Texas; Longview, Texas; Terrell, Texas; Waxahachie, Texas; McKinney, Texas; Huntsville, Texas; Bonham, Texas; Ennis, Texas; Brenham, Texas; Clarksville, Texas; Gonzales, Texas; Taylor, Texas; Corsicana, Texas; Seguin, Texas; Gainesville, Texas; Mineral Wells, Texas; San Marcos, Texas; Brownwood, Texas; Denton, Texas; Lockhart, Texas; Durant, Oklahoma; Sulphur Springs, Texas; Bayan, Texas; Cameron, Texas; Crockett, Texas; Teague, Texas; Weatherford, Texas; Palestine, Texas; Mexia, Texas; Henderson, Texas; Commerce, Texas; Belton, Texas; Mt. COUPLE MARRIED ON ANNIVERSARY GROOM'S PARENTS

C. A. Taylor Jr., and Miss Lucille Cruse, both of Dallas, were married Sunday, October 14 in Fort Worth. The wedding day of this young couple was on the twenty-second wedding anniversary of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Taylor Sr., of 4237 Lafayette street, Dallas. The marriage is of much interest in this city, since the groom was reared in this city. He moved with his parents to Dallas about six years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Taylor Sr., are highly esteemed, having a multitude of friends in McKinney. Mr. Taylor was formerly connected with the Texas Electric Railway. His wife was Miss Laura Parker before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, of this city, are grandparents of the newlyweds.

A box supper was given at Upper Rowlett school house Friday night, being largely attended. Sheriff G. J. S. Walker auctioned off the boxes, the proceeds of which went for the benefit of the school. Sheriff Walker, who is one of Texas' best-known auctioneers, sold the boxes for $52.20. Prof. Beene is the principal of the school.

Mayor and Mrs. Joe E. Largent, Mr. and Mrs. W. Avery Dowell and Mrs. Clarence Merritt, all of this city, were Denton visitors Sunday afternoon to hear the address of Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, made at the Texas State College for Women auditorium at 3:00 o'clock.

RELIEF OFFICE MAKES APPEAL FOR CLOTHING

With the winter season just around the corner, an appeal has been made by the Collin county relief office, located on North Kentucky street, for all kinds of clothing, bed clothing; in fact, for all kinds of wearing apparel for those needy in the city and county.

The appeal, made by Miss Lucy Joplin, case work supervisor of the local relief office, is an urgent one, made to following numerous requests coming into relief headquarters. Adults and children alike are in need. A large number of boys and girls of school age are badly in need of clothing. Baby clothing, too, would be used.

Those having any kind of wearing apparel they wish to donate for this worthy purpose are urged to bring it to relief headquarters on North Kentucky or else call 302, when someone will call at your home for same.

COUNTY AGENT RECEIVES SUPPLY OF LOAN BLANKS

County Farm Agent Jack McCullough has received a supply of loan blanks for the use of those farmers who entered their cotton in the government pool last year. These farmers have already received a liberal cash payment, then $20.00 per bale additional, and now will be loaned two cents more per pound or $10.00 per bale, less $2.40 carrying charges, making a net loan of $7.60 per bale. Their cotton still remains in the pool and they may receive another check later. These payments may be classed as rewards to those farmers who had faith in the government's efforts to raise the price of cotton.

Farmers desiring to take the loan may do so by bringing their Participating Trust Certificates to the county agent's office and presenting them to W. M. Gibson who will be in charge. "Without the Participating Trust Certificates, we will not be able to make out your application for the loan. The applications for loans will be mailed to Washington, and the checks will be returned to this office," Agent McCullough states.

She reports some twenty-five Plano residents, both men and women, present, forming one of the most enthusiastic garden club gatherings that she ever attended. Mrs. Lovejoy was very instrumental in the organization of the Plano club as well as other garden clubs over the county. She was accompanied by Mrs. Joe W. Largent, both making splendid addresses.

It has some of the prettiest homes to be found anywhere, with beautiful streets, grassy lawns, parks and one of the finest all-around cities in this part of the state.

ROWLETT CREEK FRIENDS M'KINNEY CITY SCHOOLS

W. A. DAY HAS HAD FOUR CHILDREN TO COME HERE

McKinney City Free schools have many appreciating friends living in the rural sections of our county.

One of the most loyal friends of our schools of this group is W. A. Day, a mighty fine man, living in the old Rowlett Creek Church community, twelve miles southwest of McKinney, who now has two children coming here every day in his auto. They are Mildred, a seventeen-year-old girl, who is a senior, and her younger sister, Audra, who is a ninth-grade student.

Mr. Day has had two other children to come here—Roger and Miss Annis. The latter graduated about three years ago and is our valued correspondent for the Daily Courier-Gazette and the Weekly Democrat-Gazette, at Rowlett.

Four other children also come in with the Day children to school here. They are Bill and Charles Carrell, children of Andy Carrell; Raymond Woods and a daughter of Frank Dinsmore. These other children are picked up every morning by the Day car, brought to school and then returned to their respective homes by the same car after school in the evening.

Pays To Water Vegetables In The Summer

It pays to water vegetables in the summer, reports Emma Edmonds. She recently told Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration club agent, that she saved her cucumber vines by watering them each week through buckets with perforated bottoms sunk near each plant. Although these plants did not bear during the drouth they were held over until the fall rains began and now she gathers cucumbers from them about 3 times each week. She and her mother are now making pickles which the drouth delayed several weeks.

Besides fall cucumbers, Emma has a supply of other fall vegetables. She has been canning blackeyed peas and cream peas with a borrowed pressure cooker for some time. Her family has okra, mustard, radishes and sweet potatoes to use on the table. She also states that she has many tomatoes on the vines which will ripen if frost is delayed a while. Otherwise she plans to have plenty of green ones for pickles.

Farm Hands Get Dollar A Day and Board

Farm hands are getting a dollar day with board, on the average the country over, for the first time since January 1, 1932 reports the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Farm wage rates advanced generally throughout all principal agricultural sections from July 1 to October 1, except in the West North Central states where last summer's drought reduced crops materially and the demand for fall harvest labor has shown a corresponding decline, it is stated.

But even in that area says the bureau, October day wage rates were slightly higher than three months ago, although monthly rates registered a moderate contra-seasonal decline. Day wages without board, on October 1, ranged from 75 cents in South Carolina to $2.70 in Rhode Island, and averaged $1.34 for the entire country.

A slight downturn, since July 1, in the supply of available farm hands is reported, but the demand was also reduced. Ordinarily, the employment of hired labor increases as corn, cotton, fruit, and potato harvesting get under way.

The bureau says that a simple price wage comparison indicates that farmers were in a better position to pay the seasonally higher level of October 1 farm wage rates than at any time since January 1923.

Appreciated Visit From Martin Butler

Martin Butler of Wylie, a native of that city, had business in McKinney Monday. He is a son of the late Dr. J. F. and Mrs. Butler, long since passed to their reward than whom that city and section never had finer people. When this editor located in Wylie, a mere youth, forty years ago and established the Wylie Rustler, Martin was almost a baby, nursing at his mother's breast. Dr. Butler, his father, a pioneer physician, landowner, and civic worker, was among the most popular citizens of that section. Mrs. Butler, Martin's mother, always took an interest in civic and religious affairs. Martin was born in Wylie.

This is the first time this editor has had the pleasure of seeing him in many years; we were pleased to chat with him for a few minutes. His youngest son, J. C. Butler, only twenty years of age, now is the local editor and business manager of the Wylie Herald, and is making good. But, we are not surprised, since young Butler, like his daddy and grandfather and grandmother, were outstanding citizens of that section.

RUTH BRYAN OWEN WILL SPEAK AT C. I. A. SUNDAY

UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO DENMARK COMING TO DENTON

Ruth Bryan Owen, United States ambassador to Denmark and daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, will be featured in the initial presentation of a special attractions series offered this year at Texas State College for Women (CIA) Sunday, Oct. 21, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Owen's varied and many experiences have laid a foundation for interesting material for public lectures. As the wife of the late Major Reginald Owen she has traveled extensively in England, West Indies, Egypt, Africa, India and the Far East. Press reports say she is a "speaker of genuine charm, and an orator of world wide fame."

Dr. E. L. Burton, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, was called to Anna on a professional visit

"GEEWHILLIKINS" CHILDRESS HAS A BIRTHDAY

HE RECEIVED SOME WORTHWHILE BIRTHDAY PRESENTS

We had the pleasure of greeting our good friend, H. R. Childress, hustling farmer of near Weston, while in the city Saturday. Although he reached his seventy-first birthday on October 8, yet he looks to be a man of not more than 50 and banters any man in McKinney or surrounding country to a wrestling match with ability to throw him provided he is not a professional wrestler. Mr. Childress states that on Sunday, October 8, 1834, he was at the World's Fair, Chicago. He had hoped to spend October 8, in the same city seeing the Century of Progress, just 10 years later, but was prevented from doing so, much to his regret. His son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. English, and their two children, Billy Ver and Nancy Caroline, came up to help him and his good wife celebrate his birthday. They made him happy by bringing him a new suit of clothes, a new pair of shoes and ten pair of silk socks as birthday gifts. He says he never was so well fixed on socks before. H. R., who is better known as "Geewhillikins" Childress, gets lots of pleasure out of life by helping to make other people happy. These editors have long been good friends of "Geewhillikins."

THE PEOPLES' CLEARING HOUSE

The Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette will print short timely communications that are acceptable. They must be free from personal abuse and libel. Authors must sign their names. The views expressed herein are the writer's—not these editors. Space is limited. This column will be called: "The Peoples' Clearing House."

STATESMEN NEEDED

The writer still insists that our democratic form of government, in the hands of statesmen, is the best system yet devised. The trouble is that the money power has for years dominated politics and today we see centralized industry and monopolies enthroned, wealth concentrated in few hands, and the Republic endangered.

Good brakes (controlled capitalism) would have prevented all that but will the politicians even now, permit control brakes to be installed? Not without pressure from the voters. Witness the fight Senator Long as been making in the U. S. Senate for limited fortunes and inheritances. The Senator hasn't gotten to first base on that issue up to now.

Statesmen must have been scarce when the present fiscal system was installed. Washington pays out millions of dollars of the tax payers money in interest on borrowings from wall street on "tax free" bonds. Such an obsolete system should be scrapped. A better system can be devised.

Again, Statesmen evidently were few and far between when our national banking act was framed. One better plan, in my judgment would be for the government to have Stewardship of all money in banks (the amount is now about 35 billions) and become lenders to Banks and Loan institutions rather than borrowers from Wall street and other financial streets on tax free bonds. This would simply reverse the present order by permitting Uncle Sam to draw multiplied millions of interest into the treasury and thereby lower taxes rather than pay out multiplied millions of interest and constantly raise taxes. Such a plan would do violence to but two classes of easy money getters. The bond interest coupon clippers and banks operating on free money, both of whom take in much but give out little. Another thing Uncle Sam is Steward of the people's money (in banks) would remove all thought of hoarding.

Think this over for a minute. If stewardship of this 35 billion dollars (the peoples money in banks) was vested in Uncle Sam, it would seem fundamentally sound for Washington to then issue, as needed, up to a like amount of currency against such deposits. In which event Washington would henceforth be independent of the money changers.

Yes, we seem to be long on politicians and short on statesmen.

The Best Buy On Earth Is the Earth Itself

Why Is The Best Buy On Earth, The Earth Itself?

It offers a most dependable, lasting, tangible security for the principal investment. All other values are more or less relative to the value of the soil.

On it rests the foundation of every economic and social structure.

These elements which sustain life, find their source in "the good earth."

A Nation's capacity to preserve peace or wage war depends upon its control of the minerals deep buried in rock-ribbed vaults of the earth, and the products of its fields, meadows, pastures and forests.

Investment in Texas and Collin County farm lands should now prove sound, as sale prices are low, practically in line with those prevailing during the depth of the depression, yet many commodity prices doubled.

Land which once produced 6-cent cotton now produces 12-cent cotton.

He who buys a farm for cash has a reserve which may one day shelter him when other investments of great promise fail.

If you have some cash and are interested, write or come in and see us. "THE BEST BUY ON EARTH IS THE EARTH ITSELF."

Back into his own--the farmer. 14c cotton; 75c corn; $1.00 wheat; 50c oats; $1.00 onions--that gets the money. Takes good land to make it.

Back to the farm--small and large. Small payments. Possessions, many of them, for 1935. Pick out your number and come in and see us.

Some Farm Facts

Well-managed Texas farms pay a net profit on the money invested.

The mineral content of our soil gives our Texas milk and vegetables needed elements found lacking in many sections.

Not so many farm bargains are offered for sale by individuals, as the owners need them and refuse to take present low prices. Some corporations, which were compelled to acquire farms to protect previous investments, find it expedient to sell at present prices in order to liquidate properties, thus converting land into money for us in the regular channels of business.

Every such sale now made reduces the stock of farm bargains on the market, because such purchasers are buying either (a) for homes, (b) a permanent investment, (c) or a decided profit.

Our farm prices are lower now than the same farms were twenty years ago, but they will not stay low, as people are buying farm lands for their dependable reserves.

Action, based on your reasoned judgment, should now be taken by those who have some cash to invest. Put some of it in land, and receive the plaudits of your family later when less stable investments take wings. Obey that impulse—BUY NOW!

Popular prices will prevail at both performances here.

REV. E. B. JACKSON OF TRENTON IS VISITOR

Rev. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the Methodist church at Trenton, was in McKinney mingling with friends for a short while Wednesday. He had been attending a meeting of preachers of the Sherman district, at Sherman, during the day. He is closing out his first year at Trenton in a very successful way, having had seventy-seven additions to the church and almost seventy of them on profession of faith. Rev. Mr. Jackson was formerly pastor of several churches in Collin county and went from the South Wilcox Street Methodist church, McKinney, to his present work. Everywhere he goes, he endears himself to the people generally, regardless of church affiliation. These editors are glad to be numbered among his good friends in McKinney.

REV. C. W. DENNIS IS WEDNESDAY VISITOR

Rev. C. W. Dennis, pastor of the Methodist church at Whitewright, transacted business in McKinney Wednesday. He and Mrs. Dennis own a farm near Celina in this county. He is winding up his first year as pastor at Whitewright in a satisfactory and very pleasant way. We regret to learn that Mrs. Dennis is not in the very best of health. FUNERAL SERVICES FOR J. D. BASS CONDUCTED BY MINISTER WHO OFFICIATED AT HIS MARRIAGE

BUT NEARLY 54 YEARS ELAPSED BETWEEN TWO EVENTS—PROMINENT McKINNEY COTTON MERCHANT AND FORMER CITY OFFICIAL LAID TO REST THURSDAY EVENING IN THIS CITY.

Funeral services for the late J. D. Bass, prominent, retired cotton merchant and ex-city official, were held at 3:00 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon at the family residence, 804 West Tucker street, conducted by Eld. R. C. Horn, venerable, ninety-year-old Christian minister, who officiated at the marriage of the deceased and his surviving wife, four and a half miles west of McKinney, lacking only seven days of being fifty-four years ago. Burial followed in Pecan Grove cemetery under the direction of the Massie Funeral home.

Active pallbearers: F. T. N Hood, Carroll J. Mathews of Plano, Everett Bass, Fort Worth; Bill Bass, Denton; Don O. Davis, J. J. Thompson, Add G. Wilson, Fitzhugh Newsome, Tom A. Hughston of Dallas and Mayor Joe E. Largent.

Many out-of-town business associates through the years and friends came here for the funeral. The floral offering was extensive and beautiful—symbolic of appreciation of the splendid character of the deceased and fit tokens of sympathy for the surviving and grief-stricken relatives.

A Tennesseean.

Jonas Dayton Bass was born February 15, 1859, at Watertown, Rutherford county, Tennessee, being at the time of his death, seventy-five years, eight months and two days old. His demise occurred in Elm Rest, private sanitarium, Dallas, in which he had been a patient since May of this year. His health began to fail in September, 1933, and he soon thereafter retired from active connection with the old McKinney cotton firm of J. D. Bass, Son & Co. that he established more than thirty years ago and which is being carried on by his son, Richard Bass, and his son-in-law, Ula A. Saunders. He was the son of Robert C. and Nancy Melissa (Phillips) Bass from leading Tennessee families, who moved to Texas with their family, sixty-two years ago when the deceased was only thirteen years old. The family traveled to Denison by railway and thence by wagon train to Lebanon in Southwest Collin. The parents soon after coming bought a farm just west of where the town of Frisco is now located, lying partly in Denton and partly in Collin counties. The father died, July 4, 1909, in the town of Denton, while his mother died four years later at the home of a married daughter, Mrs. Joe Rhea, at Roswell, New Mexico. The deceased was one of twelve children—six sons and six daughters of whom only three of the sisters now survive, namely Mrs. M. C. McBride of Dallas, Mrs. Judson Grimmet of Shreveport, Louisiana, and Mrs. Cora Satterfield of Washington, D. C. One of his deceased sisters was Mrs. Herbert (Lock) Seay, whose husband was a McKinney merchant for many years and who was the mother of Mrs. Avery Dowell of this city. Mrs. Satterfield, now of Washington, D. C., also once resided in McKinney. One of his brothers, the late Richard Bass Sr., was a former McKinney retail groceryman, associated in the business in McKinney with the late E. W. Morten.

Farmer And School Teacher.

The deceased in childhood attended school at the Bass schoolhouse near Frisco, taught by his sister, Miss Marinda Bass. He also attended the noted private academy near Frisco of the late Rev. William Allen of Frisco, who was a prominent Methodist preacher, author of books, teacher and was for several years State Senator from this district. Otherwise, he was a self-educated man as he continued to be a close student through the remainder of his life. In his young manhood, he farmed and taught school. He taught schools for five or six years at the Bowlby schoolhouse and at Upper Rowlett, both located west of McKinney.

Lived in McKinney 46 Years.

Mr. Bass and wife moved to McKinney in 1889 from their farm, four and a half miles west of McKinney. He first engaged in the feed store and then grain business, working for the Collin County Mill & Elevator company until a little more than thirty years ago when he entered the cotton business, in which he made an outstanding success. He was looked upon as an authority on farming conditions over this section of Texas and of cotton production and marketing. He studied his business, observed the trend of production and demand for cotton all over the world with a keen mind and perceiving eye which were important factors in his success in the business, in which he thoroughly trained his son and son-in-law, now associates in the J. D. Bass Son & Co. firm. He also trained other young cotton men in the business.

His Marriage.

When twenty-two years old Mr. Bass led to the marriage altar, Miss Lou Carr, daughter of the late R. E. Carr, an esteemed [illegible] who lived on their place four and a half miles west of McKinney, which farm, Mr. and Mrs. Bass still own. As stated above, Eld. R. C. Horn officiated at their marriage, as he did at his funeral Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Bass celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home on October 26, 1931, at which many guests were present to congratulate them. Mrs. Bass was the first girl graduate of Thorpe Springs college, later developing into the Texas Christian university now located at Fort Worth, of which institution her daughter, Mrs. Saunders, and her granddaughter, Miss Virginia Saunders, a teacher in the McKinney Public schools, later also graduated as they came along to their college careers. Mr. Bass was the father of four children, three of whom are surviving. They are Richard Dayton Bass, McKinney cotton merchant; Hugh Bass, prominent Dallas business man; and Mrs. U. A. Saunders, wife of a McKinney business man and cotton merchant. One daughter, Mrs. Lynn Perry, died January 23, 1913. The same date on which her son Lynn Bass Perry was born and whom his grandparents reared and educated and who is still living with them as a most dutiful son could do. He is also survived by five grandchildren, Miss Virginia Lou Saunders, Lynn Bass Perry, Billy, Bobby and Poppy Bass.

Former City Official.

Mr. Bass took an intelligent interest in public affairs as every patriotic citizen should do. He studied men and measures, lending his support to such as he deemed best meriting public favor and calculated to render the best public service. He was drafted for an aldermanic position before the days of the present City Commission of government was re-elected for five successive terms, serving about twelve years altogether. During that period, he specialized on the study of municipal affairs and rendered outstanding service to the taxpayers of McKinney. He was several times chosen Mayor Pro Tem by his associate aldermen and frequently presided at their meetings with uniform fairness and justice in the chair. He was an ardent Democrat and believed in that party's principles most sincerely. He was a man of well poised judgment and a sound reasoner in every attitude that he assumed—commercial civic or political. He was courteous in his contacts and tolerant in his views of those who might have differed with him in convictions on any matters of principle. He was a patriot inborn, who loved his country and its form of government and was a defender of its honor of more than average effectiveness in every crucial test. When he was a lad of only about twelve, he professed religion and joined the Baptist church at the old Rowlett Creek church, twelve miles southwest of McKinney. His faith was fimly grounded, although he was a man of reticence and retiring disposition by nature in both matters, religious and political import. His personal influence could always be counted on the right side of all moral issues. He was temperate in his habits as well as influence of helpfulness in precept to his children and the young people of his town and community, who might look to him as worthy as an example. In his passing, McKinney loses one of her outstanding and universally esteemed citizens and the county a pioneer, who had wrought well during the more than sixty-two years that he had been a resident of it. He left a heritage that his family, associates and intimate friends may well cherish through the years to come and endeavor to emulate with real profit and inspiration.

IMPORTANCE OF HIGHWAY 24 IS POINTED OUT

Commendation of the many courtesies shown them during their recent visit in Paris where they attended an important highway meeting, is being expressed by leading McKinney business men who were present at the meeting in Paris Friday of last week. Although the session was originally scheduled for United States Highway 271 association, yet McKinney was invited to attend the sessions since this city is located on State Highway No. 24, an important route through one of the richest agricultural sections of Texas.

McKinney sent a large delegation to Paris and was shown every possible courtesy by the hosts, including A. G. (Pat) Mayse, formerly of McKinney, and R. B. Blanton, secretary of the Paris and Lamar County Chamber of Commerce.

Other cities along Highway 24 represented in addition to McKinney were Denton, Decatur, Bridgeport, Greenville, Commerce, Cooper and others.

A. H. Eubanks, president of Highway 24 association and chairman of the Good Roads committee of the local Chamber of Commerce, and F. D. Perkins, a former chairman of this same committee, were both called on for addresses during the convention. Both are experienced and enthusiastic good roads boosters and for many years have been rendering unselfishly of their time and ability to further highway improvement all over this county. It is needless to say that their addresses were interesting, filled as they were with good roads facts of interest to every one.

Because of the large attendance of cities along Highway 24, the Highway 24 group held a separate meeting, which was attended by Mr. R. B. Blanton of the Paris Chamber of Commerce and also by the District Engineer.

The Highway 24 association was organized in McKinney last March and during its seven months of existence wonderful progress has been made, more so perhaps than on any other Texas highway during the same length of time. The route has been designated by the State, from Paris through Greenville, McKinney, Denton and on through Lubbock, as a State Highway. A portion of the route, from Cooper to No. 154, will soon be hard-topped, the highway commission has ordered. The highway commission has also ordered a survey of the route and state surveyors are already at work on the road from Farmersville to McKinney after which they will proceed with their survey from McKinney on west.

When the organization was formed, McKinney was signally honored by the election of A. H. Eubanks as president and W. Hammond Moore, as secretary. Some few months later, a second Highway 24 meeting was held at Graham which was attended by cities all along the route, from the westernmost county in the state, to Greenville.

The Paris meeting was the third session of this State Highway association.

With the Texas Centennial observance only a little more than a year away, greater than usual interest is centering on such highways as 24, 75, 271 and others, since it is important that all thoroughfares leading into the state be in good condition to accommodate the thousands of tourists expected here. That is the reason cities along No. 24 are so anxious to see gaps filled and other improvements made. It has been pointed out that this entire section of the state is working in the interest of No. 24. In fact, at the Paris meeting, Mr. Gebbard, chairman of the Dallas Commerce Highway committee, made an address and read excerpts from letters of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce to the State Highway commission, urging the completion of Highway No. 24 as designated.

Naturally, the large McKinney delegation at the Paris session is elated over the encouragement they encountered while there. Some valuable contacts were made and they found that enthusiasm over Highway 24 is still as great if not greater than when the association was first organized. Already boasting state designation, it is the association's aim to obtain Federal designation as soon as possible.

Highway 24, leading through Texas from east to west, shortens the route to California, through New Mexico, by some 300 miles. The thoroughfare intersects all the important highways coming into Texas from the north and in many other ways is one of the most important thoroughfares in this section.

State Highway No. 24 comes into Texas across the Red river, into Paris, Commerce, Greenville, Farmersville, McKinney, Denton, Decatur, Graham, Lubbock and on into New Mexico.

Among those attending from this county were Dr. W. L. Saye of Frisco, Hardy Eubanks, of McKinney, President of Highway association 24; F. Dudley Perkins, County Judge J. Frank Harrington, County Commissioner Don O. Davis, all of McKinney, County Commissioner J. Wilson Spain of Farmersville, Homer W. Wilson, Howard S. Ware, A. M. Scott, J. E. Gibson, J. H. Merrill and W. Hammond Moore and Mayor Joe E. Largent, all of McKinney.

COLLIN P.-T. A. COUNCIL HOLDS ANNA MEETING

The Collin County Council of Parent-Teacher associations met at the school building at Anna Saturday, October 13. Although the weather was threatening, about sixty-five delegates registered from over the county. Mrs. C. S. James of Lebanon presided and a splendid program, worthwhile from every standpoint, was enjoyed.

The morning session was opened with the singing of "America," with the invocation by Rev. Roy Patton. The high school orchestra provided some delightful music. Prof. C. B. Morrison, principal who extended greeting from Anna, welcomed the visitors, commending them upon their purpose in meeting, and bespeaking for Anna the heartiest cooperation in all Parent-Teacher projects.

Mrs. J. Frank Harrington responded graciously in behalf of the council. In her remarks she cited instances of young people taking adult affairs in their own hands, and urged parents to soberly consider the motives of youth and to sympathetically guide them.

A brief business session with reports from associations and a sprightly reading by Miss Sue Evelyn Rattan, rounded out the program before Mrs. James announced the time for the school of instruction, presenting Mrs. R. L. Carter of Sherman.

School of Instruction.

The school of instruction was divided into two sessions, morning and evening. At the close of session Mrs. Carter conducted a question box, allowing time for questions from the floor. The response was hearty and many associations brought their problems or asked her advice on perplexing situations. As usual, Mrs. Carter's addresses were very helpful and practical and the council members felt deeply indebted to her for her time and interest.

At noon a basket lunch was served on the first floor of the building. Delicious salads, sandwiches, pies, cakes, fruit and piping hot coffee were enjoyed by the delegates during the hour set aside for lunch.

Musical Numbers.

A lovely musical number by the orchestra opened the afternoon session. County Superintendent L. Dow Hendricks spoke of the objectives for the county schools. He read and explained the standard for schools prescribed by the department of education. His address was filled with information and encouragement. Mrs. Jack Smith gave a well-received vocal number before the second session of the school of instruction was held.

* * *

Alla Hubbard Wins Cup.

Following the school of instruction, Mrs. James called for more reports and for a count of the delegates. Alla Hubbard, with nineteen present, was given the cup again and the library.

Meet Next At Prosper.

Prosper extended an invitation for the January meeting, which was eagerly accepted. After a rising vote of thanks to the Anna association, the council was declared adjourned.

Mrs. Sallie Hickman, who lives in the Henslee Chapel community northwest of Farmersville, was in McKinney Monday, consulting Dr. Burton, her eye specialist. She recently suffered the loss of one of her eyes as the result of a virulent attack of smallpox last May. The eye recently had to be removed. However, she is getting along nicely now. She was brought to McKinney by her grandson, Weldon Horton, of Climax.

Mrs. Hattie Stallings and daughter, Miss Jane, spent the week-end in Fort Worth visiting relatives and friends.

A Texaco oil truck, driven by L. Sullivan and operating out of McKinney for the Rhea & Waters agency, Texaco dealers crashed into the ditch near the Tom Gibson farm, south of Melissa, about 10:00 o'clock last (Monday) morning. The truck, which was going north was badly damaged. However, Mr. Sullivan escaped with painful but not serious injuries. He was cut by flying glass. The truck was hauled in by the Hamilton-Patterson wrecker of this city.

J. Fletcher, itinerant sign painter, was seriously injured east of Farmersville Thursday by a hit and run driver. The victim was found beside the highway and was taken to the McKinney City hospital. He suffered severe head gashes, bory bruises and his right leg was broken.

Mrs. R. C. Curtis, who lives with her husband on the farm about three miles north of Blue Ridge was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hope in McKinney Thursday. Her husband is a carpenter who is doing some work at that trade for [illegible] in this city.

DR. C. S. WEAVER LEAVES FOR DES MOINES MEETING

Dr. Clifford S. Weaver, pastor of the First Christian church, left Monday for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will attend the International church convention for the next several days. Next Sunday, October 21, at the morning hour, his pulpit will be occupied by Eld. R. C. Horn, veteran McKinney Christian minister. At the 5:30 vesper hour, all the women's organizations of the church will be in charge of the candlelight commemoration of the sixtieth birthday of the beginning of their organized missionary work. The First Christians enjoyed a good day Sunday, with Dr. Weaver in the pulpit.

Dr. Weaver is on the program of the Des Moines meeting, being scheduled to speak Saturday morning. He will return home Monday.

ACCIDENT TAKES LIFE HIGHLAND PARK STUDENT

Funeral services for Samuel Bowen Moore, 20, were held at 4:00 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. Leslie Moore, Highland Park. Young Mr. Moore, who was a student at the Washington and Lee University, Virginia, was killed in an automobile accident near East Rainelle, West Virginia, as he was returning from Charleston, West Virginia, after attending a game between his school and the University of West Virginia. He was a junior student and a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. The young man formerly attended Kemper Military Academy, Highland Park High school and Terrell School for Boys. Besides his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Dr. Robert Moore and William Moore, and a sister, Mrs. Willis Lipscomb.

The lad's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. Leslie Moore, were formerly residents of Van Alstyne where they are members of an old established family well-known to many McKinney and Collin county people.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Dungan are rejoicing over a sweet baby son, born to them at their home in this city. The infant weighed eight and a half pounds and has been named Alvin Leroy. The young mother was Miss Evelyn Pitt of Van Alstyne before her marriage. Mr. Dungan holds a position with the J. P. Dowell Hardware store in this city. The happy young parents have the congratulations of a multitude of friends upon the arrival of their fine young son.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ward and little two-year-old baby, Steve Jr., of the New Life community, were in McKinney Saturday. Mrs Ward is a former school teacher, being a daughter of Mrs. O. J. Stroup, with whom they are residing in the New Life community. Mrs. Ward states that her brother, W. G. Stroup, the optometrist of Paris, was down to see him recently. While here, he bought a farm over towards Blue Ridge. W. G. believes that buying Collin county land on the basis of the present market can not help but be a sound investment.

Mrs. T. E. Culwell and daughter, Betty Jean, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lepeard and daughter, Carlene, spent Sunday with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W Lepeard, in this city.

W. B. Mantooth, wife and fourteen-year-old son, W. B. Jr., visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. C. C. Hendricks, three miles east of Melissa, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks are tenants on the big farm of the late Jesse Martin. Mr. Mantooth is the efficient bookkeeper and collector for the McKinney City hospital and also holds the position of food inspector of this city.

F. P. Kinamon, R. F. D. 1, Farmersville, was in McKinney Wednesday and was the guest of County Tax Assessor Nick Hood at the Lion club luncheon at the First Methodist church. Mr. Kinamon has lived in the Arnold community in Northeast Collin for forty-five years, having been in the mercantile business much of the time. Recently, he has been busy on the corn and hog Federal allotment committee for Collin county. He is a mighty good man and a worthwhile citizen who has an extensive acquaintanceship, especially over Northeast Collin.

Mrs. Dick Allen has gone to Tyler to visit her son, Rex Allen, and family, and to attend the East Texas Rose Festival in progress at that place.

COLLIN YOUTH KILLS CANADIAN-TAGGED BIRD

Charles, fourteen-year-old son of Fletcher Anderson of Westminster, in Northeastern Collin, recently killed a morning dove which was banded with an aluminum tag reading "White Jack Miner, Kingsville, Ontario, Canada."

C. W. Geer, Westminster druggist, wrote to Mr. Miner for the boy and received a recognition slip from the Canadian naturalist, who is owner of the Jack Miner bird sanctuary at Kingsville. He tags all ducks, geese and other smaller migratory birds that visit his sanctuary in order to study their routes of migration and how long they live. Mr. Miner's records are given to the Canadian government.

THURSDAY BUSY DAY FOR THIS M'KINNEY PASTOR

Thursday was a busy day for Dr. Minor Bounds, the busy pastor of the First Methodist church, McKinney, who is winding up his conference year with a good degree of success. The conference year closes on the twenty-fourth of the present month on which date Annual Conference convenes in the First church, Dallas.

On Thursday, Dr. Bounds conducted two funerals—those of Mrs. Lou Gay, Nevada, mother of former County Tax Assessor L. T. Gay, and John H. Ferguson, prominent retired McKinney business man. One was held at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Nevada Methodist church, and Mr. Ferguson's funeral was held at his late residence on North Church street, this city, at 4:00 o'clock the same afternoon. Then Dr. and Mrs. Bounds drove to Renner in the extreme southwestern part of the county where he preached at night and then held the last quarterly conference for that charge, of which his son-in-law, Rev. J. W. Lindsey, is pastor.

The Fifty-Ninth District court, in this city, presided over by Judge F. E. Wilcox, was occupied with civil jury cases Monday. The case of T. W. McGraw vs. Jim McGraw was tried Monday afternoon. The jurors were in session the first of the week of the present or September term of court and will meet again the last week of the term.

Elbert Waide, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Waide of this city, spent the week-end with his parents. Elbert is a junior in A. & M. college at College Station. He was recently elected a member of the A. & M. scholarship society to which only juniors and seniors are eligible, which is considered a signal honor for any young man. His friends are congratulating him upon the honor.

Hubert Terry, a young business man of Sherman, wife and little two-year-old son, Hubert Jr., were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Terry, who recently located in McKinney, and are living in the home of Miss Vera Hayes, on West Louisiana street.

Johnnie Watson, a member of the C. C. C. camp, at Farmersville, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. J. J. Watson, in McKinney, and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hill, 1636 Kinsmore avenue, in Dallas. While there, he attended the Texas State fair, now in progress on Sunday.

J. Weeden Franklin, retired rural free delivery mail carrier of McKinney, received painful leg injuries in an accident occurring at a local filling station garage Thursday night. Mr. Franklin was engaged in conversation with friends, standing at the side of his car with his foot on the running-board, when a woman backed her car out of the garage. His leg caught between the cars. Medical attention was quickly administered, Mr. Franklin is feeling much better Friday.

Hon. Jim Baker, Dallas attorney, attended District court proceedings here Monday.

A delightful family reunion of the Moore family was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. [illegible]

M'KINNEY HI PREPARES FOR GAINESVILLE

After fighting one of their hardest battles of the season, a 6-6 tie game with the powerful Purple Warriors at Bonham Friday night, the McKinney High Lions went back to their practice field at Newsome stadium Monday afternoon and commenced a hard week of workouts for their next opposition, the Gainesville Leopards, at Gainesville, Friday night of this week. This will mark the opening conference game of the season for McKinney.

The Lions, who are still the only undefeated team in the district, with two wins and two ties, will encounter one of the hardest propositions they have yet bumped into when they tackle the Leopards. Rated as one of the weakest teams at the start of the season, the Leopards have steadily improved and on successive week-ends have defeated the heavier Ardmore, Oklahoma, and Cleburne, Texas, teams.

Although it was one of the bitterest and hardest-fought games any McKinney team has ever participated in, the Lions came out of the Bonham game without any material injury. Bob Oliver, who was hurt during the contest, is in good shape and is rearing to go now.

Considerable interest is being aroused by McKinney fans about the Gainesville grid encounter since it is the first time in several years that McKinney and Gainesville have piled up such a fine pre-season record against consistently strong teams.

THANKSGIVING COMES IN CANADA IN OCTOBER

E. B. Dixon, well-known McKinney plumber, formerly lived in Canada. Conditions in that country are getting better, like they are in the United States, Mr. Dixon is a well read man and an expert in his line.

Thanksgiving comes in Canada in October—the United States November. Mr. Dixon has just received a copy of the Times-Journal, an independent newspaper published at St. Thomas, Canada, which his father sent to him containing the following editorial:

"Monday is Thanksgiving day.

"There are still many people who may regard thanksgiving as a sort of mockery, but the number is very much smaller than it was one year ago. The trade figures of the Dominion have vastly improved in 1934, revenue is a great deal higher, and unemployment is diminishing steadily. So that industrialists and workers have something to be thankful for.

On the farms, too, conditions are improved. Prices are better, and in Canada farmers have not suffered from drouth as they have in the United States. The summer opened inauspiciously, but before the damage became irreparable, copious rains came and offset the effects, with the results that the feed problem has been dissipated and winter is not to be feared.

Yes, almost everybody has something to be thankful for, even if only by finding somebody worse off.

In any event, if you have good health you can thank God for that. Most people take normal health as a matter of course, but there is nothing one should be more grateful for. It is more valuable than money, and like money should be reasonably preserved, not squandered."

J. C. Morris, veteran cafe owner of McKinney whose retirement from business has just been announced to the readers of this paper, says that one of the best friends he ever had is W. A. Massie, a local McKinney dairyman. He has patronized Mr. Massie and found him straight in business and always accommodating in spirit and now Mr. Morris says that since he has been forced to retire on account of a partial stroke of paralysis, Mr. Massie is ever more solicitous about his welfare in his helpless condition than he was "when I was able to give him daily patronage." We regard this as a genuine compliment for Arthur Massie.

Editor Arthur A. Bagwill of the Plano Star-Courier and Frisco Journal, and wife were present to hear the address of Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, at Denton, Sunday afternoon. Their daughter, Miss Louise Bagwill, is a student at C. I. A. where Miss Perkins spoke.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Ray Brown and daughters of Plano visited Mr. and Mrs. [illegible]

MANY ATTEND MRS. GAY OBSEQUIES AT NEVADA

County Tax Collector N. D. Ready, Dick Allen, former County Tax Assessor J. K. P. Shrader, Senator-elect Wallace Hughston, Walter B. Wilson, John Sears and wife, Horace Knott and wife, Earl Walker and wife, Robert D. Erwin, ex-Sheriff Ed Blakeman, Phil West, Rev. F. Lamar McGown and wife and others from McKinney attended the Mrs. Lou Gay obsequies at the Nevada Methodist church at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Funeral services were very largely attended and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. N. Vernon, assisted by Dr. Minor Bounds, pastor of the First Methodist church, at McKinney, and also by Rev. Mr. Wooten, the Baptist pastor, at Nevada. Special music was given in the way of a duet by H. G. Ireland of Waco, a niece of the deceased, and also a quartet by W. F. Boyd, H. G. Rogers, John LaRue and Mrs. W. C. Ireland, formerly Miss Gracie May White, daughter of T. A. White, prominent Waco citizen, who is the only surviving brother of the deceased.

Dr. Bounds, who was reared at Nevada, and has been intimately acquainted with the deceased ever since she was a child delivered a very able funeral address in which he paid tribute to the influence of her Christian life and to that of her parents and family, in an eloquent way.

An unusually large concourse of people followed the remains to the church and then to the beautiful Odd Fellows cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside her husband who preceded her in death, forty-five years ago. The floral offering was profuse. The Perry Funeral home of Farmersville had charge of burial arrangements.

Miss Lou Ann Elvira White was born, May 16, 1855, in Union Parish, in the State of Louisiana. She was the daughter of Nicholas Timothy White and wife, Mary (Newton) White, who left Louisiana for Texas when she was a baby of only about two years old and settled in Southeast Collin, about 1857, where her father bought 300 acres of land at $1.33 1-3 cents per acre and established his home. Her father built the first gin in that section of the county and was a prominent citizen until the time of his death, which occurred, November 3, 1912. Her mother died, October 9, 1892. She received what little education she could secure from the District school and married October 4, 1870, shortly after her fifteenth birthday. She and her husband, Edward R. Gay, who died April 14, 1889, established their home also at Nevada where they reared their children and where she continued to live in widowhood for forty-five years after his death.

The deceased is survived by six sons and one daughter as follows: Former County Tax Assessor L. T. Gay of McKinney, J. Maston Gay, McKinney; M. A. Gay, University Drive, Fort Worth; Edward Lehman Gay, Queen City, Texas; Clarence G. Gay, Haskell, Texas; Roy P. Gay of Dallas, Texas; and Mrs. W. T. (Virgie) McCain, Nevada, Texas.

She is survived by thirty-four grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren and also by one brother, T. A. White.

Homer Harris is home from a month's stay at the government hospital at Hot Springs, Ark. Homer gave more than 30 of the best years of his life to Uncle Sam and is a retired soldier, whom everybody likes and respects. His health has not been so good the past few months, hence his month's stay in Hot Springs. He is greatly improved. His many friends are pleased to see him home. Mrs. Harris is visiting her sister in Marlin, but will be home in a few days.

Miss Ada Brown, assistant city secretary in the office of City Secretary G. Frank Wolford, has the forefinger on her left hand still in a splint. In helping to move some furniture in the home of her mother, Mrs. R. Van Brown several weeks ago, the finger was caught in such a way between some furniture that the bone was bursted lengthwise and it is taking some time to heal up. Miss Brown is a sister of former County Tax Collector Ed S. Brown. She is quite efficient in her office work.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Whitwell returned Thursday night from a four-day trip in Oklahoma, visiting their five children and six grandchildren who live in that state. They also visited a sister of Mrs. Whitwell. These relatives live in Norman, Oklahoma City, Stillwater and Tulsa.

Tom Hall and Bob Hall, extensive farmers of the Wylie and Parker communities, are in South Texas purchasing onion seed plants for the 1935 crop.

M'KINNEY FOLK HEAR SECRETARY PERKINS SPEAK

Among McKinney people who drove over to Denton Sunday afternoon to hear Miss Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor in President Franklin D. Rosevelt's Cabinet, speak in the auditorium of the Texas State College for Women (C. I. A.), were Judge George P. Brown and wife, Mrs. Minor Bounds, Mrs. Frank Emerson and Mrs. Dr. E. L. Burton.

Miss Perkins, who is the only woman to ever hold a Cabinet position in the administration of any American president, is a fluent speaker and a profound thinker on governmental questions. She did the cause of the "New Deal," as fostered by the Roosevelt administration, a great service among the large audience that heard her.

Among her audience Sunday afternoon were four Texas Congressmen—Rayburn of Bonham, Sumners of Dallas, Lanham of Fort Worth and McFarlane of Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stiff, who reside on East Davis street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby son, born to them Saturday. The infant weighed ten and a half pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Stiff have another son, Billy, aged 2. They are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their fine baby son.

W. B. Mantooth, former Deputy County Clerk, but now City Food Inspector and bookkeeper and collector for the McKinney City hospital, has two daughters, Misses Edith Ney and Mabel Wilma, who are both attending the North Texas State Teachers college, at Denton. Both are graduates of the McKinney High school. Miss Edith is a senior and expects to get her college degree at the close of the present school year. Her sister, Miss Mabel Wilma, is a freshman, this year. These young McKinney ladies live in the home of their aunt, Miss Annabelle Pritchard, who is one of the teachers in the Educational department at the North Texas State Teachers college. She has been a member of the faculty for about ten years. Miss Pritchard is a sister of Mrs. W. B. Mantooth.

R. L. Martin, wife and children of Ector were in McKinney Tuesday en route back to their home from a two or three days visit to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Martin, at Graham, in Young county. Mr. Martin was formerly a barber in McKinney, but several months ago bought the only barber shop in the little town of Ector, in Fannin county, which he has since conducted and where he and his family have since resided. While in McKinney, Mr. Martin and family briefly visited at the home of his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dink Meador.

Walter Stewart, who holds a position with the Texas Power & Light company at Palestine, Texas, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Stewart, in this city Thursday. Walter is a native McKinney young man, who has been at Palestine several years. His many friends were glad to see him.

PARIS EDITOR ELECTED HEAD HIGHWAY ASS'N.

Editor A. G. (Pat) Mayce of the Paris Evening News, for sixteen years a member of the staff of these paper, was elected president of the United States Highway 271 association as delegates ended a two-day convention, at Paris, Friday. Editor Mayse who is an active good roads worker has been a leader in work in interest of this highway for some time.

The city of Talihina, Oklahoma, was awarded the spring convention. At the meeting it was decided to have the Chamber of Commerce of each city along Highway 271 from Fort Smith to Beaumont, select a director for the road body.

Edd Wester, who lives on West Erwin street, went over to Light's Ranch Saturday evening and brought home with him his wife, who had been there for two or three weeks visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Boyer. Twin babies were born to Mr. and Mrs. Boyer on October 1—a pretty little girl and a fine boy. The young mother and babies are getting along nicely.

Martin W. Moses, state manager for the Acme Life Insurance company, spent the week-end with his family in this city. Mr. Moses makes Austin his headquarters.

FINAL SERVICE CONFERENCE YEAR AT PRINCETON

Final services for this conference year at the Princeton Methodist church will be held next Sunday, October 21, at 11:00 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. All members and friends of the church are urged to attend.

The pastor, Rev. Frank Wilkinson, will conduct the services at the Culleoka Methodist church at 3:00 p. m. Sunday afternoon. He urges a conference of all members of this church concerning the work for another year. He says, "Let each member of these two churches come to these services. We must know the plans of the church so as to provide for the next conference year. The public has a cordial invitation to these services.

Absentee voting for the general election, November 6 will begin on Thursday, October 18, according to Mrs. Pearl Strother, county clerk. The absentee balloting will end in person on November 3, by mail on November 4. Mrs. Strother will then mail out the absentee balltos to the regular election boxes where they will be counted on November 6 as part of the election. Absentee voting in the general election is not expected to approach the heavy absentee vote cast in the two Democratic primaries the past summer. One reason is that the vote in the general election is not expected to be so heavy. And, too, many vacationists took this method of balloting during the summer.

Dr. R. E. Morrow, one of our county's most successful physicians and surgeons of the Blythe's Chapel community, was in McKinney Wednesday transacting business. Dr. Morrow takes an active part in all community affairs in civic, educational and church affairs. He is a high-tone Christian character, and these papers appreciate his friendship and patronage.

J. Fletcher, a sign painter, was hit, knocked down and seriously injured by a hit-and-run autoist, about four miles east of Farmersville, about 9:00 o'clock Wednesday night. He was badly bruised and a leg was broken. He was brought to McKinney by G. Edward Bolger in a Perry Funeral home ambulance of Farmersville. Fletcher is a sign painter. His injuries are very painful.

SINGERS FROM TWO STATES GATHER HERE

One of the largest attended and enjoyable singing conventions in the history of North Texas was the Collin County Semi-Annual convention held in the district courtroom of the courthouse here Saturday night and Sunday, when McKinney entertained several thousand visitors and some of the best singers from all over North Texas and Southern Oklahoma.

The courtroom was crowded to capacity all day Sunday as a host of music lovers came to enjoy the excellent singing. Standing room was at a premium.

Singers were present from various points in surrounding counties and from Oklahoma. They were entertained while here and all greatly enjoyed their stay in McKinney. Outstanding quartets were here from Idabell and Madill, Oklahoma; the Matthews Sisters quartet of Dallas; and the Timmons Brothers quartet from the Blythe's Chapel community in this county, as well as scores of other fine musicians.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1934.

McKinney's water supply is to be greatly improved in quantity and, possibly in quality, by the sinking of the deep well to the Trinity sands. This water bearing strata is to be penetrated for the first time by our city, which is now getting its water supply from the Woodbine sands, not quite half so deep and not nearly as prolific as the Trinity sand subterranean reservoir. Mayor Joe E. Largent has just received a properly signed contract from PWA authorities, Washington, D. C., approving the $40,000. four per cent water-works bonds issue, voted a few months ago by our taxpayers. The Government agrees to take them at face value to be repaid in fifteen years and, in addition, make a $16,-000 grant or outright gift to our city so as to assure adequate funds for the project and for laying more and larger mains. These activities, to be carried on during the next few months will give local labor a lot more employment. When finished, they will assure our property owners a saving of from $6,-000 to $8,000 annually in fire insurance premiums. More and better water and less insurance cost are not discouraging prospects at all.

The best poultry show was recorded during the recent county fair that has been seen in Collin County for possibly four or five years. This is according to authority of Jack Weeks of McKinney, the efficient superintendent, who has been a faithful worker in our county fair, almost ever since its beginning, seventeen years ago. A wide variety of chickens are to be found in almost every locality of our county. Our 6,000 farms, as a rule, are well stocked with chickens, guineas, turkeys, ducks and geese. Poultry affords the choicest of human food, both in eggs and table meat. These products are always in demand and bring ready cash on the market. The poultry industry is one of the largest and most vital in the United States.

McKinney's Public school system attracts state-wide notice on account of both its efficiency and high standards. It is giving due consideration to practical education in the way of its commercial and secretarial training department, manual training, home economics for girls, training them in the arts of needlework, garment designing, food cooking, serving etiquette; vocational agriculture for future farmers. The last named, vocational agriculture, has fifty-one enrolled so far, this year, under the efficient tutelage of Prof. J. T. (Doc) Rollins. Our McKinney public school concepts includes the practical training of the eye and hand as well as along mental or literary studies and in character building.

Onion seed production is a new and promising industry for this county. N. A. Burton of McKinney, P. L. Miller of Farmersville and perhaps others have demonstrated, in the last two or three years, the practicability of growing a high quality of Bermuda onion seed on this blackland. The world already knows about our county's success in growing that variety of onions in a commercial way. Attention is also being given by Collin onion growers to the production of their own onion slips. This will also greatly reduce our onion crop expense.

As a type of pavement, concrete cannot be excelled for safety to human life, for economy in motor travel and in the wear and tear of autos and trucks. Here is hoping that the State Highway Commission will build the north half of Federal Highway No. 75, or State Highway No. 6, from McKinney to Van Alstyne, of this durable material. We want concrete!

Hon. Tom Connally, Junior United States Senator of Texas, is attending the Interparliamentary Union Congress at Istanbul, Turkey, as a delegate from the United States. Senator Connally is rated among the most eloquent and able of American statesmen. He will reflect credit upon his country in the great international body to which he is accredited.

Collin county held one of her greatest fairs, this year, despite a long drouth during the summer months. The people of the county, however, worked hard and proved that they are one of the most thrifty peoples in the land, keeping up a good average all-around yield. This was reflected in the agricultural exhibits of our recent county fair.

With typical fall weather prevailing and with the long winter evenings on the way, you will do some extra reading of newspapers, magazines and books while sitting by your fireside. If you are not already a member, why not join the McKinney Public library and have an interest in the thousands of worthy volumes to be found on its shelves?

The Communist party, reputed to be such a "grave danger" to the nation, has a measley 24,500 members in the United States. However, it is the methods of this party, and not its membership, that causes such concern at times. The Communist is a wild-eyed extremest who wants to destroy constitutional government.

INFORMATION FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

M. E. Patterson, assistant in Cotton Adjustment of the United States Department of Agriculture, with offices in the county farm agent's office of the courthouse says that the report is coming to that office that in the transfer of Tax Exemption Cotton certificates between parties in this county, sales are being made where the buyer has paid less than the price set by the secretary of agriculture, which is four cents per pound, no more and no less. He also states that he has been informed that some are making a rebate in the purchase price.

"All purchase and sales must be at the price set," says Mr. Patterson, who adds, "They must be from one producer to another producer, to be used only on this year's crop.

"Any change or deviation from the regulations set forth by the secretary of agriculture subjects the certificates to cancellation, and both the buyer and the seller are subject to a fine of $1,000 or six months in jail, or both."

Mr. Patterson says, "It is not my desire to cancel any certificates or to report anyone to the Department of Justice, but if any regulation is violated, the party or parties will be prosecuted to the fullest extent, and their certificates cancelled."

Miles Welborn, who resides one mile west of Culleoka, was a McKinney business visitor Thursday. While here he came by our office to subscribe for the Daily Courier-Gazette for three months in advance. Mr. Welborn is an energetic and successful young Collin county farmer who informs us that farmers in his community have just about finished gathering this year's cotton crop. We appreciate his friendship and trust that he will enjoy keeping up with Collin county news happenings through the columns of the Daily Courier-Gazette.

Mrs. W. W. McDowell, who is in the textbook department of the office of State Supt. L. A. Wood at Austin, came home Friday which was a holiday to spend the week-end. She states that Prof. Jack R. Ryan, superintendent of McKinney public schools, chairman of the State Textbook committee, is universally popular at Austin and with educators of the state. Even the school book publishing companies all highly regard him and want him to remain on the board on account of his fairness, his ability and his honesty in dealing with them.

JUDGE HARRINGTON DISCUSSES THE 8 AMENDMENTS

Discussion of the eight pending amendments to the Constitution of Texas to be voted on at the general election in November, by County Judge J. Frank Harrington, held the attention of the McKinney Rotarians and guests at their Friday noonday luncheon held in the dining room of the First Methodist church. Judge Harrington is an excellent talker. He had given some close study to the amendments. His address was explanatory and not partisan—for or against. He merely sought to explain them so that the Rotarians and voters generally might weigh the facts as they see them and vote more intelligently their own sentiments at the ballot box.

President Jack P. McCullough was in the chair. He is an excellent presiding officer, good natured and snappy in handling the club so as to bring the luncheon and program periods within the hour allotted without running over time.

Rotarian Hammond Moore led the club in singing with Mrs Ula Saunders at the piano. Under Rotarian Moore's direction, this McKinney service club has developed a liking for singing that adds zest and new zeal to Rotary club meetings.

A splendid fried chicken dinner was served the club by a group of Social Workers of the First Methodist church with Mrs Jeff Smith, chairman.

Miss Katherine Griffin, a senior at the North Texas State Teachers college, in Denton, came home Friday evening for the week-end and to attend the bedside of her seriously ill sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Griffin, who was taken to the City hospital Saturday morning for treatment. H. E. BREVARD WITH PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

H. E. Brevard, the new district engineer for the United States Public Health service for twenty-seven counties in North and Northeast Texas, headquarters at Texarkana, was in McKinney Friday, conferring with H. B. Bickers, county administrator of the Collin county relief organization and with W. B. Robinson of the county relief office.

He succeeds Mr. Adams, in that position who was recently transferred to New Mexico with headquarters at Sante Fe and who did a fine work in this district which we are sure Mr. Brevard will carry on in the same fine way.

Mr. Brevard comes to this Northeast Texas district from Harlingen, down in South Texas, as headquarters for a district extending from Brownsville to Laredo, Texas.

Mr. Brevard is very efficient in his work and comes highly recommended to this portion of the state.

While in McKinney, in company with E. L. Beard who works under City Health Officer Dr. H. F. Wolford and the City Commission, he inspected the mosquito and malarial control work being done in and around McKinney.

He considers the work being carried on here, especially along Wilson Creek south of the city, as of exceptional value. Stagnant holes in the creek have been ditched and the water oiled, the creek bed cleaned of drift wood and the banks cleared of rank weeds and other breeding places for mosquitoes.

In this manner the breeding places of mosquitoes are destroyed and the annoyance of the pest and the danger that they entail to the public health is greatly minimized.

Mr. Brevard compliments our city administration and the county relief supervisor for the fine cooperation they are giving in this important public health work.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Hoover and Miss Bess Waters attended the Rose Festival in Tyler Friday.

J. H. Atchison, 60 years of age, died suddenly at 7:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, October 9, at his home west of Frisco.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Stambaugh, October 6, at their home near the Alla Hubbard school, in West Collin.

Mr. and Mrs. Shuler Moore attended the football game in Bonham between Bonham and McKinney High schools Friday night.

Buford Holland and Miss Lium Stice of the Weston community were happily married this (Saturday) afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at Ed & Jess service station by G. O. Key...

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cunningham, Miss Lucy Joplin and Miss Mary Lewis Nelson attended the McKinney-Bonham football game in Bonham Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hen... and children attended the football game, in Bonham Friday night between McKinney and Bonham High schools.

HELPS WHOLE FAMILIES

Attention, MOTHERS, to what every doctor knows to be a fact, and what they say to avoid

If you have children who are occasionally constipated, you should know this.

If you are "not yourself" because of a constipated condition, don't blame it on your blood condition, or your age, but first try this treatment that safely relieves sluggishness in children or adults.

The Proper Treatment

You can't safely relieve the bowels with any medicine if you can't regulate the dose. To regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. When necessary to repeat, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition at any age.

A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of such natural laxative elements as senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help themselves.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drug store. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better overnight. The children will like it, too; Syrup Pepsin has a delightful taste.

If you will risk sixty cents to discover the safe, pleasant action of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, we believe bowel worries will be over for your household.

BE CAREFUL

IF any laxative is dipsetic (makes you thirsty).

IF it affects your appetite.

IF you need more today than the first time you took it.

IF it drains the system (by too watery a movement).

IF a bad "burning" is felt.

IF there is severe griping.

Stop Chills and Fever!

Rid Your System of Malaria!

Shivering with chills one moment and burning with fever the next—that's one of the effects of Malaria. Unless checked, the disease will do serious harm to your health. Malaria, a blood infection, calls for two things. First, destroying the infection in the blood. Second, building up the blood to overcome the effects of the disease and to fortify against further attack.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic supplies both these effects. It contains tasteless quinine, which kills the infection in the blood, and iron, which enriches and builds up the blood. Chills and fever soon stop and you are restored to health and comfort. For half a century, Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic has been sure relief for Malaria. It is just as useful, too, as a general tonic for old and young. Pleasant to take and absolutely harmless. Safe to give children. Get a bottle at any drug store. New two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money.

The coliseum is always a scene of beauty during the food show, because the ladies in charge and the exhibitors use their decorative skill to great advantage in making the coliseum most attractive. The ladies of the First Presbyterian church circle, who have active charge of the show, are Mrs. G. B. Apple, president; Mrs. Raymond Nelson, vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Lewis, secretary; and Mrs. J. J. Thompson, treasurer. They believe that they will have a much bigger and better pure food show this year than ever before.

This will be the twentieth annual event. Since its inception here two decades ago, it has grown each year until now it is looked forward to as one of the outstanding community entertainments here throughout the year. In addition to the food show and cooking school, local expression and dancing teachers will present their pupils in recital in the evenings, including Miss Nina Thompson, Miss Carrie Joan Davis and others. These programs are always features of the four-day event, because the kiddies, well trained, always do their best to give the food show patrons an enjoyable entertainment.

Mrs. D. A. Wilkes and attractive baby daughter, Joan, have returned to their home in Dallas after spending a few days with Mrs. Wilkes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Coffey, Robert Jr., Fred Nelson and Hugh Johnson, were among the McKinneyites witnessing the Bonham-McKinney football game in Bonham Friday night.

Jailer Stoney Allen and Deputy Sheriff Arbie Sparlin carried two prisoners to Huntsville Thursday.

25 YEARS AGO IN M'KINNEY

FROM THE FILES OF THE DAILY COURIER-GAZETTE

(October 11, 1909.)

Mrs. E. Tinning is having some improvements made on her home on North Kentucky street. Pedro Wilmeth is the carpenter in charge.

The Collin County Mill & Elevator Co. has closed a contract with the firm of Jones & Cooper to add another story to the mill plant. It will enlarge the mill's facilities for unloading and handling wheat.

M'KINNEY AND BONHAM PLAY 6-6 TIE GAME

The McKinney High Lions and the Bonham High Warriors fought to a 6-6 tie in one of the closest, best matched, hardest-fought and most thrilling games most of the fans at Bonham had ever witnessed Friday night. Approximately 350 local fans witnessed the contest.

The Lions' teamwork against the all-around power and speed of the Warriors war remarkable. They fought and hustled together and never backed up an inch. The same may be said of Bonham. Both teams expected their hardest game of the year so far and both had their expectations fulfilled.

Neither side countered in the first half. Bonham pushed over her counter in the third quarter immediately after the kick-off. Jack Odle kicked out from his own 19-yard line to Bonham's 41, Wingate, returning 7 to the Bonham 48. The speedy Wingate, always a threat took off around left end for 17 yards to the McKinney 35. The Lions were penalized 15 yards to their own 20. Blankenship failed to gain. Wingate crashed through left tackle for 13 yards to the McKinney 7. From that point, it took the flashy fullback three tries to put the ball over. The score:

Bonham 6, McKinney 0.

George Holland, McKinney tackle, intercepted Beasley's pass for the extra point.

McKinney Scores.

McKinney's touchdown drive, a sustained drive of 62 yards started in the beginning of the fourth quarter. Odle returned Ramsey's kicked 2 yards to the McKinney 38 as the quarter ended. Leo Crockett circled left end for 9 yards. Captain Adair made it a first down on the 50. Crockett cut left end for 10 more yards to the Bonham 40. A pass, Odle to Adair, was good for 20 yards and a first down on the Bonham 23. Leo Crockett carried to the 20 and a pass, Adair to Odle carried for 14 yards and a first down on the Bonham 7-yard line. Adair smashed through for 6 ydars to the Bonham 1-yard line. Here the Warrior line braced and held like a stonewall. Adair tore into the middle of the line like a battering ram twice in succession and got to the 4-inch line. On fourth down, the fighting McKinney line opened up a big hole and Crockett crashed over. Adair's kick from placement was wide by inches.

That was the extent of the scoring. Bonham made 11 first downs to McKinney's 9, but the Lions made two more distinct scoring threats.

Blocking Is Feature.

The blocking of the McKinney team in the first quarter was a feature as they ran up five first downs in rapid succession. Their defensive play in the second and third quarters and the last quarter offensive which they turned loose endeared them to hundreds of McKinney fans.

It was the consensus of opinion that the Bonham-McKinney game was one of the hardest-fought in history of North Texas grid games. Neither side gave an inch and battled from whistle to gun. There were no outstanding stars for McKinney. The Lions fought as a unit and therein was the success of their invasion of the Fannin county capital.

The contest was witnessed by a huge crowd of possible 3,000 or more. The Bonham fans were greatly pepped up over their team's win over Denton the week before and McKinney fans, by the hundreds, swarmed to the field and were not disappointed.

FUTURE FARMERS VIEW TERRACES OVER COUNTY

The local future farmers, who are members of the vocational agriculture classes of the McKinney High schools, in company with their capable teacher, Prof. J. T. Rollins, made an inspection trip Friday to observe the kind of terraces that were being built by the farmers for whom the department has run the lines.

They visited five farms and saw terraces that were constructed with a county grader, with a corsicana grader, with a martin ditcher and with fresno. Each of the fields visited presented a different terracing problem due to the topography of the farm. One of the farms visited had two contour terraces that circled the top of the hill in the middle of the block of land and each of the other farms had its own particular type of terrace. The trip was instructive and will serve to prepare those future farmers who desire to qualify for a certificate of merit in terracing. Collin county could use many boys who have its future at heart to the extent of preparing themselves to conserve its soil, for its prosperity and its soil fertility go hand in hand.

METHODIST WOMEN ZONE 1 HOLD MEETING

With a large attendance present, Zone No. 1 of the Ladies Missionary society of the McKinney district Methodist Episcopal church met with the South Wilcox street church Tuesday, Rev. F. Lamar McGown, his talented wife and consecrated workers of this church proving themselves to be ideal hosts for the meeting. Rev. Mr. Wilkerson opened the session with prayer. Mrs. McGown gave the welcome talk with Mrs. Tine Kerby of Farmersville responding.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Sallie Dalton of the Wilcox street church gave the devotional on "Self Mastery," her text being taken from the book of Daniel.

Among others who spoke were Mrs. E. L. Burton of the First church, who discussed "Christian Citizenship"; Mrs. Moore of Wylie, who spoke on "Rural Development," being assisted by Mesdames McDonald, Smith and Brooks, all of Wylie.

At 12:30 lunch was served in the church annex, with Dr. Minor Bounds offering invocation. The ladies of the host church served the lunches buffet style.

The afternoon session opened with a sing-song. Mrs. Mitchell of Renner was accompanist at the piano.

Mrs. J. S. Terry of Terrell, by invitation, gave the afternoon devotional, quoting her scripture from several books of the Bible. Mrs. Mitchell of Renner, district secretary, also spoke, her subject being "World Peace." Mrs. Cook of Josephine spoke on "Interracial Cooperation" while Mrs. M. E. Evans of Josephine, the presiding officer, gave ten rules for living and thanked each member who had part on the program.

Mrs. John LaRue of Nevada recorded the minutes of the meeting.

NEVADA MERCHANT SON OF PIONEER COLLIN PHYSICIAN

While on a recent visit to the little Southeast Collin town of Nevada, one of the editors of this paper renewed acquaintances with our longtime friend, J. A. Taylor, who operates jointly a drug store and a hardware store. Mr. Taylor has been in business there for about thirty years. In fact, he was born at Nevada, being a son of Dr. R. A. Taylor, a physician, who died there forty-three years ago. Dr. R. A. Taylor settled at Nevada, or where Nevada was afterwards built, in the year of 1851.

J. A. Taylor has a big store, well stocked on one side with drugs, soda fountain and confectioneries and on the other side and in the rear he carries a nice large line of standard hardware. He deserves the good business that he is enjoying.

M'KINNEY BLOND GRIDDER MEMBER BAYLOR CUB TEAM

James Kimbriel, tall blond gridder formerly of McKinney High, is due to start the game for the Baylor university Freshman of Waco when they take the field against the Texas Christian university Polliwogs October 18 in Waco in the initial game of the season for the Baylor cubs.

Kimbriel is the outstanding end on the freshman squad at the close of three weeks' practice when the squad was reduced from 110 candidates to 50. It is with no little satisfaction that Coach Jim Crow has regarded the actions of the McKinney blond. He has improved steadily since the beginning of the season and is due to play an important role in Thursday's contest.

In the numerous scrimmage sessions held by the cubs, his play on the defense has been remarkable, to say nothing of his exceptional art of pass receiving. If the freshman continues to improve, it is likely that he will become a regular on next year's varsity, as well as rendering invaluable service to the cub team of this season.

Former McKinney Girl Is Wife Of Nevada Merchant

We had the pleasure of renewing acquaintances recently with Henry T. Pool, son of G. W. Pool, dry good merchant, at Nevada, for thirty-four years, and prior to that in business at Old Copeville. The son, Henry T. Pool, who operates a store for his father, has a nice home in Nevada. His wife was formerly Miss Zula Dunn, daughter of the late A. L. Dunn, who died in McKinney a number of years ago, and who was a highly esteemed early settler of the Verona community before buying a home and settling in McKinney. Mrs. Pool is a sister of Keen Dunn of McKinney. She is a former Collin school teacher. Mr. and Mrs. Pool are the parents of a sweet little two-year-old baby girl, Jane, who is the joy and sunshine of their happy home.

Mrs. A. A. Bagwill of Plano is a guest Friday of her mother, Mrs. J. Warren Jones, and her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Spencer.

TWO FINGERS LITTLE BOY ARE SEVERED

Jack Walker Moss, little eight-year-old son of former County Tax Assessor and Mrs. Orlia B. Moss, sustained the loss of two fingers—his forefinger and middle finger on the right hand, in an accident, while playing with some of his little friends Thursday afternoon.

Jack Walker and some of his boy friends were playing the modern game of leap frog, known as "one and over," measuring the distance of their jumps with a hatchet, which they had childishly secured. The Moss child jumped and then held his hand down to mark the spot, while one of his friends tried to mark the spot with the hatchet. His aim was bad and Jack's fingers were severed from the hand.

He walked calmly home, but his mother was not at home at the time. So, the lad bravely walked to the nearby City hospital where he received medical attention. When the frantic mother arrived, the lad had already received surgical attention and was smiling. He will recover rapidly. His father is at present employed as one of the officials of the Bankhead Cotton Reduction act at College Station.

The accident to Jack is a distressing one and very painful, but the little fellow proved himself to have heroic blood and a bountiful supply of grit in his make-up—two very desirable characteristics for the useful stalwart man that he is sure to make when grown up.

M'KINNEY SCHOOL HEAD HONORED STATE CAPITOL

Prof. Jack R. Ryan, city superintendent of schools, arrived home Friday morning from the state capital, at Austin, where he and the four other members of the State Public School Textbook commission have been in session for eight or ten days, recommending free school textbooks for adoption to the State Board of Education for the schools of the state, beginning September 1, 1935.

Contracts were awarded mainly as recommended by the Textbook committee, aggregating about $2,000,000. Prof. Ryan is serving his third year on the Textbook commission and was re-elected its chairman on this trip for his second year. This is an honor for Prof. Ryan that has never been conferred the second time on any other member. It is a distinction for McKinney's City school and our county to provide a member for this important state board and especially since he has been given the distinction of twice being elected as its chairman.

COLLIN WELL REPRESENTED AT PARIS

McKinney and Collin county were well represented at the joint meeting of State Highway associations, at Paris, Texas, Thursday, of Highways 271, 82, and State Highway 24. Editor Pat Mayse of the Paris News, formerly connected with these papers for sixteen years, presided. Among the speakers were Congressman Sam Rayburn of Bonham and Congressman Wright Patman of Texarkana. Another notable personage present was Col. Lillie or Pawnee Bill, who came from his Oklahoma ranch and supplied some buffalo meat for the banquet.

Among those attending from this county were Dr. W. L. Saye of Frisco, Hardy Eubanks, of McKinney, President of Highway association 24; F. Dudley Perkins, County Judge J. Frank Harrington, County Commissioner Don O. Davis, all of McKinney, County Commissioner J. Wilson Spain of Farmersville, Homer W. Wilson, Howard S. Ware, A. M. Scott, J. E. Gibson, J. H. Merritt and W. Hammond Moore, and Mayor Joe E. Largent, all of McKinney.

Former County Commissioner John Day of Allen was in McKinney Friday, mingling with his host of friends on our streets. He came to the Collin capital, while Mrs. Day and their four children—J. W. and Neal and their two girls, Wanda and Glenda, were taking in the Dallas State fair. Mr. Day is done picking cotton and gathering crops for this fall. He estimates that the cotton production in his community, this year, amounts to not more than half a normal yield. He raised enough corn and oats, this year, to run him until another crop. He is done sowing wheat and would like to see a good rain now,more especially for the good of fall sown wheat and oats.

Mrs. Beulah Settle Taylor, an experienced saleslady, has accepted a position with Mrs. Ralley's Ready-to-Wear Ladies' store. Mrs. Taylor for several years was with Mrs. Marshall and Cheeves Bros. and Co. She has many friends who will be pleased to call upon her at Mrs. Ralley's

RELIEF CANNERY AT CELINA TO OPEN SOON

Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration club agent, states that the relief cannery will be opened in Celina in a day or two. This will make six canneries in the county, there already being canneries in operation at the county farm, in Plano, Farmersville, Wylie and Anna. At each place workmen are putting up several hundred containers of vegetables and meats which will be distributed for relief purposes this fall and winter. Workers in the canneries are paid by the government. The plant at Plano made a splendid record, having put up 587 containers one day last week. Miss Paralee Bryan is supervisor of the Plano plant while Mrs. Mattie Carter of Frisco is county supervisor.

Former County Tax Collector Yancey Powell is now getting out some on the streets by the aid of his crutches. Several months ago a stool on which he was sitting in a cafe turned in such a way as to precipitate him in a fall on the floor that broke his hip. He was in the hospital for several weeks. His scores of friends are glad to greet him again on his visit downtown. Yancey was a fathful and very competent county and public official. We are glad to be numbered among his friends.

U. N. Clary, president of the Prosper bank who is one of West Collin's most widely known and useful public spirited citizens, sends cash to pay for the Daily Courier-Gazette to his address for another three months. Many thanks.

HIGHWAY, SOUTH OF CITY, TO BE OPENED SOON

Discussion of the recent Collin County Free fair and horse show, the District 1 meeting of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, the progress made in highway construction in the county and the work being done in interest of the Texas Centennial, featured Wednesday afternoon's monthly Board meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce, presided over by Pres. Jas. H. Merritt.

The meeting was moved up two days, the regular meeting date being Friday, in order that local business men could attend the two-day joint highway meeting scheduled in Paris today (Thursday) and Friday of the Highway 271, 82 and 24 associations, at which McKinney has a good-sized attendance present.

President Jas. H. Merritt, in beginning, declared that a signal voluntary honor had come to one of the members of the local Chamber, Walter B. Wilson, in his appointment as acting local postmaster in McKinney. Mr. Wilson is one of the organizers of the McKinney Chamber of Commerce who served as its president for three years and who is still a director in the organization.

Pres. Merritt read a letter from Postmaster Wallace C. Wilson, asking the sentiments of the local Chamber on the matter of closing the postoffice at noon on Saturdays, or advisability of placing extra clerks on duty. The Board went on record unanimously favoring keeping the office open Saturday afternoons.

Will Soon Open Highways.

A. H. Eubanks, reporting on good roads progress in the county, declared splendid progress was being made on Highway 75, between McKinney and the Dallas county line. It was his opinion that the road would be open to traffic within the next ten or twelve days, the road then being completed save for a short detour in the edge of Plano, which will not inconvenience motorists.

Mr. Eubanks also declared that the government is already engaged in making a permanent survey on the east end of Highway 24, east of McKinney. Highway 24, which runs east and west through this county, enter the state north of Paris and continues through West Texas. Mr. Eubanks is president of the Highway 24 association.

Mr. Eubanks, in his report, called attention to the joint Highway meeting in Paris Thursday and Friday, at which the state highway commissions of Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas were expected to be present. This very important highway meeting, he believed, was brought about largely due to the plans going forward for observance of the Texas Centennial. Highway 75, running north and south through the county and through McKinney, as well as Highway 24 will have interest focused on them this year and next, since much of the tourist travel into Texas will come over these two roads.

Collin Free Fair Success.

Discussing the recent Collin County Free fair and horse show, of which he was president, Mr Eubanks asserted that officials were pleased with the success of both events. They were doubly pleased with the fair's success, in view of the obstacles they were forced to overcome in a year that witnessed a drouth and heated spell during the growing season.

A report from the Junior Chamber of Commerce, of which J. Lovejoy Comegys is president, was given by Don W. Bagwill, a vice-president of that organization, who reviewed past activities of the organization as well as some of their future projects for this fall.

* * *

Report on Regional Meet.

Gibson Caldwell, who was general chairman of arrangements of the recent District 1 gathering of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, comprising several Texas counties, reported on the success of the all-day session, held at the Hill Crest Country club. According to Hubert M. Harrison, Etex Chamber manager, it was one of the best group meetings of the entire East Texas area. Mr. Caldwell declared he was glad to note the large attendance of local citizens at the meeting. He was indebted, he said, to all the committees, who helped to make the event a success.

Discusses Centennial.

F. B. Pope, who was recently made president of the Collin Centennial organization, told of the progress of Centennial plans now going forward in this county. The executive committee is pleased with the progress already made over the state. He referred to the special session of the legislature called for Friday, at which the principal business will be making an appropriation for the Centennial, to be observed in 1936. It was his opinion that the Centennial will be one of the greatest celebrations of its kind the world has ever seen. Walter B. Wilson was another discussing Texas' 100th birthday anniversary, commending Mr. Pope for his interest shown in the approaching observance.

In addition to Mr. Pope, present other officers in this county's Centennial organization include Walter B. Wilson, secretary-treasurer and chairman of [illegible] publicity and educational committee; Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy, chairman of beautification committee; A. M. Scott, chairman of exhibits, and W. Avery Dowell, chairman of the historical committee.

Secretary Tells of Waco Visit.

Secretary W. Hammond Moore gave a brief resume of his recent visit to Waco, where he attended a meeting of Chambers of Commerce managers from the three regional organizations of the state, the East Texas, the West Texas and the South Texas Chambers of Commerce. It is desired that these three regional groups establish central headquarters in Austin, he said. Secretary Moore briefly mentioned some of the highlights of the Waco gathering.

Mr. Pope commented on Secretary Moore's report, stressing the importance, especially, of the problem of taxation, and asserting that every citizen of the county should avail himself of the opportunity to know more about the subject. Chambers of Commerce, he said, should school their members on the subject and members should familiarize themselves with the different bills to be presented at the legislature on the subject.

* * *

Members Present.

Members present at the Board meeting included: President Jas. H. Merritt, Secretary W. Hammond Moore, F. C. Thompson, J. E. Gibson, A. H. Eubanks, H. S. Ware, W. P. Abernathy, Dr. P. D. Robason, Hansford Ray, Newton J. Burkett, Gibson Caldwell, Walter B. Wilson, F. B. Pope, F. D. Perkins, A. M. Scott, and Don W. Bagwill, city editor of these papers.

REV. DARNALL IS EVANGELIST 3-STATE CHURCHES

Rev. W. D. Darnall, who was reared at Cottage Hill, about twelve miles northwest of McKinney, has been called to serve as tri-state evangelist of the Christian churches at their convention held at Bever, Okla. Sunday, which was attended by 170 delegates from the Panhandle counties of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Rev. W. D. Darnall lives at Elkhart, Oklahoma. He is vice president of the convention and delivered the convention sermon on "Why I am a Christian only." Rev. Mr. Darnall was chosen as convention evangelist, which is the most important honor the convention had to bestow on one of its many ministers. He will continue to live at Elkhart and preach on the third and fourth Sundays at the church, there, of which he is pastor. The other two Sundays of each month will be given to revival work over the district.

Rev. Mr. Darnall has two sisters living in McKinney—Mrs George P. Brown and Miss Etta Darnell, the latter residing at 506 North Benge street.

Col. Dick DeArmond and A. Blaine Smith of this city were Frisco visitors.

Hon. Shelby Cox, well-known lawyer of Dallas, and former district attorney of that city, had business in District court here Monday.

Today's news in today's Courier-Gazette. Keep up with the procession and your friends by reading it daily. Only 60 cents per month, delivered to your door.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Furr and charming young daughter, Miss Mary Lee of Abilene, arrived this evening for the week-end visit to Mr. Furr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. G. Furr. They motored through the country.

G. C. Sheets, an old, established blacksmith and an excellent mechanic and citizen, at Celina, sends $1.00 to have his name enrolled on the Weekly Democrat-Gazette subscription list for a year in advance. We are more than happy to enroll his name.

Hon. Fred Duncan, busy and energetic lawyer of Wylie, attended court at McKinney Friday. Mr. Duncan really needs a law office in McKinney. He has built up quite a nice practice, not only in his home county, but also at the county seats of adjoining counties—Hunt, Rockwall and Dallas. Wylie is sort of a central location for him.

We had the pleasure of shaking the friendly hand Saturday of Walter Norris who lives on Mrs. Manning's place at Bloomdale. Walter is a fine fellow, a friend of many years to this editor. We thank him for a dollar on his Weekly Democrat-Gazette subscription for another year.

With most of the cotton already gathered, the report of Mrs. Oscar George, Collin county cotton statistician, shows 32,651 bales ginned in this county up to October 1. This is in comparison with 41,034 bales ginned up until the same time last year. The cotton crop in the county is much smaller this year, due to reduction in acreage and to the long summer drouth. The crop was gathered early, the dry hot weather causing the bolls to open quicker and permitting the farmers to get into their fields and gather the crop early.

Mrs. G. B. Rose, who has been seriously ill at her home in Frisco for some time, is recovering.

Mrs. Elizabeth Griffin of Frisco has gone to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where she will take a special course in nurse training.

Mrs. J. W. Haggard of Plano who has been quite ill for several weeks, is much improved, which will be good news to her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nixon and family of Frisco and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patterson of McKinney visited Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Nixon and family.

Mrs. J. P. Dowell of Westminster is spending a few days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Powell, in McKinney.

Mrs. Bertis Willis, wife of the proprietor of Willis suburban grocery, corner of North College and West Erwin steets who has been very ill, is improving in condition Thursday.

Mrs. J. J. Holloman of Wylie, who has been confined in St. Paul's hospital in Dallas for the last few weeks, was brought home Tuesday. She is recovering nicely, now being able to be up.

CONCRETE HIGHWAYS PAY FOR THEMSELVES

Three reasons why concrete is the most economical pavement:

1. Long life and low upkeep—funds which would otherwise be spent for repairs may be used to complete our highway system.
2. Scientific investigation has proved that it costs motorists up to 2 cents per mile less to drive on concrete than on inferior surfaces. The saving is in gas, oil, tires and car repairs.
3. Concrete builds business, promotes travel. A town on concrete is moved closer to all markets.

And in addition to these money-reasons concrete pavements give motorists relaxation ; ; ; comfort ; ; ; and SAFETY!

Pave Texas highways with concrete . . . attract more Texas Centennial visitors . . . advertise Texas to American motorists.

Long Leaf Kiln Dried Lumber Is The BEST.

Wilcox Lumber Co., has always kept its yards stocked with the best grades of Lumber manufactured.

We have had some inquiries about a cheaper grade of East Texas lumber. We do not recommend the inferior grades of lumber, because, we think the best is cheaper in the long run, but we can furnish our customers with any grade of building material they desire and as cheap as it can be sold by any body. See us when in need of anything in our line.
